MOMS Add Names to Memorial Book

Still collecting names for their honor roll book are Birmingham MOMS, unit 3. The book is at the Baldwin Public Library at all times, along with a memorial plant. Compiled by the MOMS during the presidency of Mrs. Guy Jensen, 647 Kennesaw, Birmingham, the dedication was made on the grounds of the Baldwin Public Library in November, 1943. The book contains the names of those sons and daughters of Birmingham who served at home and abroad in the Armed Forces. However many names are still missing which the MOMS would like to add if submitted to Mrs. S. J. Bawden, 908 Purdy, Birmingham, or Mrs.

TOURING lavish show places on the Las Vegas trip, Kirk W. Mills, E. Moore, Bloomfield Hills, poses beside the pool at the new Dunes hotel there. Mr. Mills is owner of the K. W. Mills Construction company. He is now back at home after a ten day vacation in the desert resort.

Quota Club Celebrates Birthday

Oakland Country Quota club will celebrate the 37th birthday of Quota International with a seven o'clock dinner at Aunt Fanny's restaurant, Royal Oak. Table centerpiece will be a huge birthday cake decorated in Quota's colors, silver and blue. Silver and blue candles will be on each table. Places will be marked with miniature birthday cakes with lighted candles for club members who also celebrate their birthdays this month, they are Mrs. Marion Moeller, Mrs. Alice Pelzman and Mrs. Mary Ann Scherer.

MEETING CHAIRMEN are Lucy Landon, field executive of Girl Scouts in Oakland county, and Mrs. Patricia Anderson, manager of Marwill Book shop at Northland center. There will be guests from Farmington, Farmington, Royal Oak and Detroit.

Charlotte Franco of Guatemala City, Guatemala, has been chosen as the "fellow" for 1955-56. Her field of study is social work with the blind and she will conduct her studies in the school of social work at Boston university, Boston, Mass.

Quota club throughout the U.S. Canada, Alaska, Mexico and Australia try to make life in this country pleasant for the "fellow" selected by Quota International.
