Suburban Scene

The S. S. Suburban Ready to 'Sail' Saturday Night

By BETTY DUPUIS

"All aboard!" The SS Suburban will set sail from the dock at Hillcrest Country club Saturday night at 8 for a cruise around the world. Sponsors of this "Suburban Cruise" dinner-dance are the members of the Suburban Dance club.

Members and their guests will arrive attired in cruise clothes, according to their individual vacation tastes and the ballroom will be decorated to look like an ocean liner. Jack Dailley's orchestra will be on deck, playing music appropriate to the ten ports-of-call, one for each dance.

Chairmen for the dance are the Walter H. Rileys, Westchester way, Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, Graefield road, Birmingham, the Richard Smiths, Pembroke drive, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Matson, Manchester road, Birmingham, are serving on the committee.

Village Players Show

For the January invitational show, the Birmingham Village Players will produce "Lo and Behold" a three-act comedy by John Patrick. Dates chosen are Jan. 27 and 28, the time will be 9 o'clock and the locale, the Playhouse on Chestnut street, Birmingham.

Direction is by Mrs. Anita Hard, Franklin, who also directed "O Mistress Mine" at Players as well as "East Lynne" and "You Can't Take It With You" for Franklin Village Players. Assistant director is Mrs. Josephine Greiner.

George T. Dwyer, stage manager, heads the technical staff. He is assisted by Dr. Edwin Deer, lights; Mrs. Eleanor Parsons, costumes; Mrs. Emily Gove, Mrs. Margaret Remondino and Mrs. Lorraine Martin, properties; Mrs. Hortense Adams, lines, and Robert Keller, sets.

Celebrations Galore

There was cause for much celebration on the last day of 1955 at the Maple road home of the Herbert Carrs. Mrs. Carr's daughter, Audrey Grendahl was married to Thomas Kuhn on that date. But that was only the beginning.

Dec. 31 was also the eighth anniversary of the Carrs' wedding date, the 70th birthday of Mrs. Carr's mother, the groom's father's birthday and the 43rd wedding anniversary of two wedding guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter.

Thrilling Journey for Three

Three Birmingham girls are back from a thrill-packed journey to Los Angeles and the Rose Bowl game, tired but happy and delighted with western hospitality. They are Paula Joanne Luscombe, Lea Mae Marsh and Betty Stoddard. Paula is the daughter of Mrs. Jewell Luscombe, North Worth, Lea's parents are the L. T. Marshs, Birwood drive, Betty is the daughter of the Howard D. Stoddards, Warwick road.

Besides their enjoyment of the game and preceding Parade of Roses, the trio had many other breakfasting experiences during their journey. They enjoyed a stop at Los Vegas on the way out, traveling on the Scarlet train of the Spartan Special, a tour of the UCLA campus, tours to Disneyland and the Spanish missions. They were also guests of Evelyn Knight, the singer, who is Lea's cousin, lunched at the Beverly Hills, visited Grauman's Chinese theater, and met Jack Benny and the UCLA coaches at CBS and NBC studios. Another high point was a New Year's Eve dinner at Mike Lyman's, followed by dancing at the Alexandria hotel.

Caberfae Ski Area Draws Residents for Weekend Fun

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hedgecock of Witherbee, Troyton Manor, ardent skiers and former residents of Cadillac, spent the weekend at their recently completed cabin in the Caberfae Ski Area near their former home.

The weekend had been designated as publicity weekend for the area with leading sports announcers and photographers from television, radio and press of Detroit and Chicago.

The Hedgecocks attended the luncheon and the smorgasbord dinner held in honor of the occasion at the Northwood hotel in Cadillac on Saturday. The event attracted a host of skiing enthusiasts with a reported 1300 on the slopes on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedgecock spent the holidays from Christmas Eve through to New Year's Day at their cabin with their daughter Ann, a sophomore at Central Michigan College, Mt. Pleasant, and their five year old son Tony.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Martin Kleindienst formerly of Toledo, Ohio, are now residing at 744 Graefield Court, Mr. Kleindienst, a graduate of College of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio, is associated with American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Mrs. Kleindienst attended Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, and her sorority is Pi Beta Phi. They have one son, 5 month-old Paul Martin III. Mrs. Kleindienst is the former Patricia Duggan of Pleasant Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark of Troyton Manor will entertain at a pot luck dinner and bridge party for their bridge group at their home Saturday, Jan. 14. Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. William Page, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Spier.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Hart of Graefield court recently entertained at a cocktail-buffet supper at their country home in Howell. There were 21 guests at the affair which preceded a dance at Chemung Hills Country club.

On New Year's Day the Harts were among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cannon of Howell at a Rose Bowl television-cocktail party.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Carey and daughters Judy and Lee of Graefield road have returned to their home after spending the past three weeks with Mr. Carey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carey at Berlin, Wis.

Mrs. N. L. Harris of New Paltz, N. Y. arrived Sunday to spend a month with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Wilhelm of Graefield road. Mrs. Harris recently returned after having spent five months traveling throughout Europe. This is her first visit to Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Chapman and daughter Barbara of Graefield, after spending the holidays with Mr. Chapman's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tobey in Kalamazoo, went on to the Caberfae Ski area for several days of skiing before returning to Birmingham.

Mrs. Wilma Eastham has returned to her home in Salem, Ore., after spending several days, including the holidays, with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Mosher, Jr. at their home on Graefield road.

Mrs. W. D. Caughman, Jr. has returned to her home in Columbia, S. C. after spending the holidays with her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Carl Land at their home on Graefield road. Mrs. Caughman remained for two weeks and several affairs were given in her honor.

The Land's son, Mickey, will host the January monthly meeting of the Musical Juniorettes, a group comprised of music students of the fourth and fifth grades under the sponsorship of Mrs. Robert W. Kutcher, at his home Sunday afternoon, Jan. 15. Refreshments will be served to the 19 members expected to attend.

"I've got room for 9 of us"

Bel Air Beauville—
4 Doors, 9 Passengers

Chevrolet offers you a choice of six sprightly new station wagons—including two new 9-passenger models—all with beautiful Body by Fisher, all with plenty of cargo space, all with new horsepower ranging up to a hot 205!

Here's a zippy, exciting kind of power that's fun to handle. And the closest thing to sports car performance—split-second steering reaction and the knack of holding fast around curves—that you'll find in a full-size automobile. Seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding, are optional at extra cost. Safety door latches and directional signals are standard. Come in soon and drive a real road car!
