

Traffic Laws For Protection, Gaffill States

Obedience to traffic laws can make every day S-D day!

Reminding citizens of S-D day, held here recently, Justice John J. Gaffill of Birmingham justice court urged that all citizens co-operate to make safe driving an every day practice.

"It is high time," Justice Gaffill said, "that motorists and pedestrians recognize the fact that traffic laws and regulations are made for their protection."

CLAUDE M. BOOKER

Booker Appointed Kresge Toy Buyer

Claude M. Booker, 32336 Beaconsfield, Birmingham, has been named toy buyer for the S. S. Kresge Co.

Booker has been Kresge merchandise coordinator for the past year and a half. He has been associated with the company over 25 years.

Wildcat Sick Strike At Grand Trunk Ends

No interruption of computer service resulted from the failure of a number of Grand Trunk Western railroad yardmen to report for work several days last week.

Birmingham station agent Harry J. Wichman stated that "a bunch of young fellows decided to take a few days off last week, and booked in sick. They now are back at work."

Normal service to commuters is expected to continue, Wichman stated.

Stories Resume

When the Baldwin public library's story hour begins again Saturday, Mrs. Charles Burch will read the new Dr. Seuss book, "On Beyond Zebra!" and "Eppaminondas and His Auntie."

Children from Kindergarten through sixth grade are invited to attend from 10:30 to 11 a.m.

FRED M. GLASSFORD

Dodge Main Plant Names Glassford

Advancement of Fred M. Glassford, 166 Linden road, Birmingham, former Works Manager of the Dodge Main Plant, to the position of Manufacturing Manager of the Dodge Division, was announced today by M. C. Patterson, Dodge vice president and car operations manager.

In his new position Glassford has responsibility for all manufacturing operations, including production, planning, traffic, quality control, industrial engineering and plant protection activities.

A native of Detroit, Glassford attended Royal Oak high school and the University of Michigan before becoming an apprentice toolmaker in the machine division of Dodge in 1932.

HE ADVANCED to toolroom foreman, toolroom general foreman, and assistant general master mechanic at the Dodge Main Plant before being named manager of the Indianapolis transmission plant in 1953.

He returned to Detroit late in 1953 to become general superintendent of the machine division at Dodge Main and in 1955 was named Dodge Main Plant manager.

His present appointment until his present appointment.
