

PTA to Meet At Poppleton

Poppleton school's PTA will hold a round table discussion on the subject of the health and safety of a school child at its meeting at 8 p.m. in the school's all purpose room.

Guest speakers have been invited for the evening. Joseph Zabelski, safety educational consultant, safety and traffic division of the Automobile club of Michigan will be one. Another is Chief Dave Grattopp of the Troy Police department. Virgil Rains, manager of Troy school buses, Helen Folkers, school nurse and Mrs. Myrtle Bro, principal of Poppleton school are the others.

Following the round table talk there will be an open discussion of the subject.

Refreshments will be served by the third grade room mothers, Mrs. Stewart Buckland and Mrs. Ellis H. Allen.

Members of the PTA board will meet in the home of Mrs. Leonard Fandale, 1920 Wattle road, on Jan. 26 at 8 p.m.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

DANCE ENTHUSIASTS, beginners and experts alike, get early instruction in preparation for the Torry square dances season which begins Friday, Jan. 20. Participants are encouraged to wear western style garb.

Enthusiasts Set The Mood For Torry Dances

Torry school will echo to the twang of a square dance caller and the foot-stamps and hand-claps of an enthusiastic crowd when the school's Parent-Teacher Association opens the year 1956 with an old-fashioned hoe-down Friday, Jan. 20.

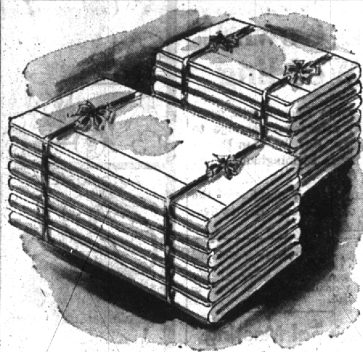

President Ed R. Beyer, 1582 Cheltenham, points out that the popularity of square dances never seems to diminish, and this form of entertainment provides an excellent opportunity for newcomers and neighbors to get to know each other better.

The Torry dances are not restricted to PTA members nor to residents of the school's immediate area, according to Beyer, who emphasized that participants do not need to be square dance experts to enjoy the evening. Instruction by the caller makes it possible for amateurs to learn the basic steps, he explained.

During the dance intermissions, soft drinks, coffee and cake will be served.
