Arthur Hagmans Entertain Thirty Guests at Ski Lodge

Skiers skimming over snow-covered slopes in the moonlight, toboggan sleds zooming down hillsides, silver skates cutting designs into the ice were all a part of the scene at the winter resort party given by the Arthur Hagmans at their Lake Valley Ski lodge up near Graying for their holiday guests.

After a day of winter sports at the lodge, the 30 Birmingham guests motored over to Kalkaska where residents from that town joined the Lake Valley group in skis in ski fun which lasted well into the night.

The Arthur Hagmans are planning a trip similar to the one last year for Birmingham residents interested in a weekend of winter sports up at the lodge.

A chartered bus will leave from the Hagman home at 3916 Cotton-tail lane on Saturday, Jan. 14, at 7 a.m. and will return to Birmingham on Sunday at 8 p.m.

Anyone interested in making the trip, should contact Mrs. Arthur Hagman, Cotton-tail lane; Mrs. Harry Allen, Quanton road or Mrs. Charles Ray, Quanton road, immediately for any details.

The recent dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter of Maple road was both a family get-together and a bon voyage party for Mrs. Helen Belote, who will be leaving soon for Honolulu. The Carpenter's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Belote, and their three children, Glenda, Gloria and Frankie were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kingsbury, who are moving from their home in Long Pine Village to a home on Long Lake road, were the guests of the Fred Hannas of Mayflower court. Other guests were Bill and Peggy Broach and the Harclay Mores. The group enjoyed the Hannas' gift from Kris Kringle—one of the small Hammond organs which allows a player, even if he has never seen a keyboard before, to produce beautiful melodies.

Election March 12 To Fill 7 Offices, Settle Liquor Sale

FRANKLIN—Persons who wish to file for one of seven elective Village offices must do so by Feb. 25 in order to have their name on the March 12 ballot.

Voters will also decide whether liquor shall be sold by the glass in the Village.

Terms expiring this year are those of Village President Harold A. Roseberry, Clerk Faye Hawk, Treasurer Norman G. Curtis, Councilmen Homer D. Hyde, J. Robert Mitchell, and Harry B. Rotiers, and Assessor Walter K. M. Rodgers.

Blue flames licking at copper chafing dishes, champagne punch and candlelight gave a festive air to Jean and Bob Duseaux's open house party for neighbors along North Millway on Jan. 1.

The month's simmering in that sauce had the men guests urging each other to try them before the tasty morsels were gone; and women guests asking others if they thought their hostess might part with that recipe.

Attend Association Meeting in Lansing

VALLEY WOODS—Attending the Arabian Horse Association of Michigan at Michigan State University were Mrs. John Erlanson and the young Erlansons, Adrienne and Chuck, of 14 Mile road.

The Association met to plan a showing at Michigan State Fair in September. This year, they say, owners of Arabian horses in Michigan will put on a new and interesting showing. Chas. and Adrienne will be showing their Arabians.

Activities for the year and plans for increasing membership in the association were formulated.

Neighborhood Group Gathers For Coffee and Conversation

"Twelve days of Christmas, and then some are really needed to include all of the entertaining one likes to do. Mrs. John Moon of Bellvine Trail had a group in for coffee and conversation last Friday.

Included in the group were Mrs. Russell O'Neal, Mrs. S. Pedy, Mrs. John O'Brien, Mrs. Russell Sedburgh, Mrs. William Kreib, Mrs. John Calhoun and Mrs. Richard Reason of Bellvine trail, Mrs. Charles Deuel of Eastlady road, Mrs. Kenneth Kittle of Westlady road and Mrs. Ralph Hall of Smallwood drive.

The Russell O'Neals of Bellvine Trail extended their holiday last weekend by motoring to Columbus, Ind. to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde O'Neal. Jean and Bill had an opportunity to exchange gifts and to spend the weekend with their grandparents.

CALIFORNIA TRIP

Bert and Jean Gattward of Bellvine Trail have just returned from 12 days in sunny California. Included on their itinerary was the thrilling Rose Bowl game and parade. After the game Bert and Jean rented a car and spent some time visiting well known spots in California including Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm and Santa Anita.

In Hollywood they went to Grauman's Chinese Theatre and met and talked with Wild Bill Hickok (Guy Madison) of TV fame and his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hemphill of Beverly Hills and the Gattwards went out together on the Empire Builder.

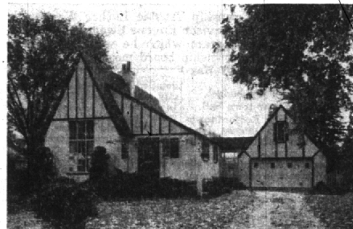

Other area residents flying out to attend the exciting Rose Bowl game were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Conner and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alger Conner of Utica road, Pontiac.

Stores, churches, bus service, and Quanton School practically at your doorstep. Nothing could be more convenient; yet, this seven room brick Colonial is in a lovely residential neighborhood—wonderful for raising children.
