Far-Away Friends Visit Newcomers in New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hummel, 32208 Verona Circle, enjoyed their new home all through the holidays and invited friends and relatives from near and far to come and enjoy it with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Walker spent part of the holidays with the Hummels and are now back home in Stratford, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Darnell have also returned home to Wheaton, Ill.

The Hummels' son, Chuckie and 17 of his relatives added to the gaiety when they celebrated Chuckie's sixth birthday Friday evening. Grandma and Grandpa Hummel came from Detroit and so did his maternal Grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William O'Donnell and youngsters, Billy, Maureen and Beth from Litchfield were there as were the Richard Tarnas and C.D. Walters from Detroit.

Mrs. Hummel took cupcakes and ice cream cups to Beverly school for all of Chuckie's classmates in Kindergarten.

RESIDENTS LEAVING

Mr. and Mrs. James Zawodni and daughters, Robin, Kathy and Janie will be moving from the corner of Madison and Dunbarline next week for their new home, at 1784 Cedar Hill drive. The girls are glad they are still in Beverly school but are sorry to leave their neighborhood pals.

The Zawodnis are long-time residents of Beverly Hills and started the tradition of annual carol fest held around a huge bonfire at Christmas time.

Mrs. William J. Burke is hoping to move soon to her new home in Minneapolis to join her husband. Burke was transferred to Minneapolis by the Texas Co. several months ago and Mrs. Burke and the children, Margaret, Kathleen, Susan and Billy are anxious to be with daddy once again.

Mrs. Thomas DeVine is entertaining her dessert bridge club this evening in her home at 15008 Buckingham.

Mrs. Charles Grenier, Jr., 19551 Buckingham, gave a dessert bridge this afternoon. Her guests were Mrs. Thomas Raleigh, Mrs. Russell Montgomery, Mrs. Thomas Levine, Mrs. Larry Foster, Mrs. Bill Meuser, and Mrs. Adam Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Capinola, 32201 Verona Circle, gave a cocktail party for about thirty of their friends Wednesday evening.

Ball room dancing classes for young people resumed this week at the Community House, Lynda Mills, Mary Helen Redfern, Helen Collins, Cheryl Brokaw, Janet Hutten and Marilyn Anderson are enrolled in the Tuesday classes, as well as Robert Graham, Terry Bangs and Jimmy Haas.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stapleton and six-month-old Tommie returned home this week amid snow flurries after spending a month in Florida visiting both sets of grandparents.
