

Prefers Eating Out

Pleasant Hill, Calif. — Because the dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Art. Habel, named Poochie, ate most of his meals at the home of Stella and Howard Waite, the Waiters asked the Habels for Poochie. They agreed, but now the Waiters never see Poochie—he went back to scrounging meals from his original owners.

Home Demonstration Unit To Discuss Storage Space

The Home Demonstration Unit will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday, Jan. 25 at the home of Mrs. M. W. Irvin, 1614 Witherbee, Troyton Manor. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Joseph G. Obey and Mrs. Hugh Collopy.

Subject for the evening will be "Storage Space", to be presented by Mrs. Jean Callaway. The presentation will include specific storage areas such as kitchens, linen closets, bedrooms, with specific emphasis on homes in this particular area, including objects difficult to store, limited storage space, etc.

A discussion will be held to determine in what manner individual members have solved their storage problems as well as to discuss individual storage problems. Questionnaires will be distributed to each member in order to more easily pinpoint major storage problems.

NEWCOMERS

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sykes and their two-year-old daughter Hilary, new occupants of 1744 Graefield road. The Sykes recently arrived from Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. Sykes, a writer for the J. M. Handy organization, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and Mrs. Sykes attended Principia College at Elmhurst, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Sykes were both formerly associated with the Christian Science Monitor in Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Dech and children, 20-month-old Bobby and 3½-year-old Billie are now residing at 1633 Graefield road.

The Dechs are former residents of Malverne, Long Island, where he was assignment editor for Television Productions and News of the Day for television in New York City.

He is a graduate of Penn State University and received his master's degree from Ohio State University. He is presently associated with Chrysler Corporation in the public relations division.

Former residents of Detroit and now living at 1800 Graefield road are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd G. Sease and their son, five-month-old Robert.

Mr. Sease is regional account executive for the Great Advertising Agency in Detroit. Both Mr. and Mrs. Sease are graduates of the University of Michigan, her seniority being Delta Delta Delta. She is formerly from McAllen, Texas and he is a native of North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard S. Parker of 248 Graefield court announce the birth of a son, Jonathan Arthur, at Grace hospital in Detroit on Jan. 8. The Parkers have one other son, 5-year-old Bruce. Mr. Parker is the former Betty Beugen of Minneapolis, Minn.

Her parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Beugen, and aunt, Mrs. Anne Weinblatt returned to Minneapolis on Tuesday after spending several days at the Parker home.

CUB SCOUTS B-23

Pack B-23 of the Cub Scouts for this area have high hopes of a clean sweep in this neighborhood. The first two weeks of February will see the boys out in force taking orders for brooms. The proceeds from this project will go into the general fund. The boy getting the most orders will receive a prize, so let's face it—we might as well be prepared for some pretty original and persuasive sales talk.

The January pack meeting will be held Jan. 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the gym at Pembroke school. At this time Den 7 will present a pantomime in honor of the 250th birthday of Benjamin Franklin. Tommy Tobias will act as narrator reading poems of wisdom from Poor Richard's Almanac while other boys furnish the action.

In a lighter vein, Den 8 will present a silhouette of Peter Pan. To date the narrator is unnamed as the Den Mother ponders an impartial way of selecting the boy for that choice role.

On Feb. 4 the entire Pack will attend the Shrine Circus at the State Fair Grounds. The Den Mothers are looking for any father who can ride herd on a carload of active boys, so if you qualify for the job, let them know.
