Newcomers Host Old Friends At Open House In New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Nelson of Morning View Terrace entertained at an "Open House" in their new home.

Some ninety guests from Birmingham, Grasse Pointe, and Detroit caught their first glimpse of the Nelson home.

The Nelsons, their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Donald Swanson of Lansing, flew to Fort Lauderdale for the Christmas weekend to spend the holidays in their Florida home where their son and his maternal grandparents are spending the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Boening of Tibury traveled to Lansing last weekend to visit his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Boening.

The William Kimbroughs of Bradway boulevard have been vacationing for the past two weeks at Sea Island, Ga.

Mrs. Thomas J. McCauley of Bradway boulevard accompanied by Mrs. Bruce Knight of Hamilton road and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chamberlain of Huntington Woods are leaving the latter part of the month on a Caribbean cruise.

Mrs. McCauley's son-in-law, S. P. Leahy, has been selected with nine other men in various parts of the country to represent the United States at the International Conference on Human Relations in Rome, Italy.

Mr. Leahy will fly to Washington on the 20th of the month, then on to New York and Rome where he will remain for two weeks during the conference after which he plans on traveling through Italy and Switzerland and visiting Paris before returning home.

The Dan Fishers of Tibury road have just returned with their young daughter, Nancy from Anderson, Ind. where both their families live. They traveled to Anderson for the holidays and as Mr. Fisher incorporated the visit with a business trip they were able to spend several weeks in their former home.

SEE MOTORAMA

Mr. and Mrs. William Chisholm flew to New York last Sunday to spend some time seeing the Motorama, shopping and attending plays. Mr. and Mrs. James K. Wernig of Waddington road will be staying at the Essex House while they top are visiting New York and the Motorama. Among the shows they are looking forward to seeing is "Plain and Fancy."

Bill Garwood, four year old son of the M. F. Garwoods of Williams-bury drive is recuperating from a tonsillotomy he had recently. All his little friends will be glad to hear that he is feeling well again. Mrs. Conrad Zeisler entertained friends for luncheon and cards last Thursday afternoon in her home on Cleary circle.

Among those who enjoyed the luncheon and Bolivia were Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. L. Halliday, Mrs. H. Strisler, Mrs. Leon Hill, Mrs. V. Harris, Mrs. H. Staunton and Mrs. Jack Dempsey, all of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Morrow are the proud grandparents of a son born to their daughter, Mrs.
