MRS. GLENN MacNAUGHTON SMITH

Newly Married Smiths Honeymoon in New York

Following their wedding trip to New York city, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn MacNaughton Smith will make their home in the Mayflower apartments.

Mrs. Smith is the former Joan Carol Snow, whose parents are the Carroll C. Snows, Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. J. Fairbairn Smith are the groom's parents. The couple exchanged vows and rings in Redford avenue Presbyterian church the evening of Jan 7, with Rev. Harry De Young officiating.

Chantilly lace and tulle fashioned the bridal gown, which was made with an underskirt of taffeta. Her fingertip tulle veil was caught in a tiara of pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid corsage.

Judy Beggs, Royal Oak, the honor attendant, wore Capri blue shantung, designed with a fitted bodice and full skirt, matching velvet cap and veil and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Betty Grebe and Margaret Ward, both of Detroit, were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were the same as the honor maid's but their bouquets were yellow carnations.

JAMES Fairbairn Smith II, was his brother's best man, and Pat

White, California, David Van Buren, Lansing, the ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Snow wore black lace over beige satin with a black velvet veiled headband. Her corsage was of Hibiscus roses. Mrs. Smith was in red and nylon with a full skirt, with which she wore a pink flowered hat and pink camellias.

Wedding guests came from many places, including California, Ohio and all parts of Michigan. Traveling the farthest was Mrs. William Matthews, who lives in Hawick, Scotland.

Presenting its second concert of the season last Saturday night in the Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium, the Scandinavian Symphony paid tribute to Wolfgang Mozart. Henri Noice, Royal Oak, concert violinist and assistant conductor, conducted three Mozart compositions.

Barbara Holmquest, outstanding Ann Arbor pianist, was soloist. Besides the Mozart numbers, the program included works of Alfvén, Janoff, Strauss and Verdi. "Afterglow," coffee hour and dancing in the International Institute followed the concert.
