Service Clubs Honor 'Woman of the Year'

A dinner for Oakland County Women's Service clubs will be hosted by the Zonta club at 6:30 this evening at Devon Gables at which time "The Woman of the Year" will be honored.

A nominee of the Oakland County Service groups, Florence Doty, was named the outstanding woman last week by judges Edward E. Wilson of Birmingham, Dr. John D. Monroe of Pontiac, and Mayor Howard Kelley of Royal Oak.

FLORENCE DOTY

Presently Florence Doty is serving in the capacity of registrar under the outstanding jurist, Judge Arthur E. Moore. Learned in the law, she has the respect and admiration of the entire bar, and even the most eminent lawyers turn to her for assistance and respect her judgment. She is known for her devotion to the probate court for 41 years, which is the longest service of anyone in a Probate Court in the State of Michigan.

She is past president of the Pontiac Zonta club, a member of the Urban League and the only woman to ever hold office on the Board of Directors for Lincoln Round Table.

THE PURPOSE of the joint dinner meeting is to become better acquainted with one another and their various service projects. The dinner has become an annual affair with presidents of all the clubs acting as committee heads in planning the program. Mrs. Katherine Shields, president of Quota, is this year's general chairman.

Dinner music will be presented by the ensemble of the Royal Oak Teachers band.

PRESIDENTS given the chairmanship of a committee include Kathleen Flint, publicity; Gertrude Dickerson, reservations; Norma Campbell, tickets; Beatrice Brown, program; Mary Dewey, badges; Freida Calhoun, decorations, Viola Alderbert, music; and Louise Shaw, favors.

Clubs represented will be the Sororist International of Berkeley, Birmingham, Ferndale, Royal Oak and Pontiac; Quota club of Oakland County; Business and Professional Women of Royal Oak; Oak Park, Ferndale and Hazel Park; Zonta clubs of Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills, Pontiac and Royal Oak; Altus club of Birmingham; and the Ventura clubs of Birmingham, Berkeley and Royal Oak.
