

Dinner at Kingsley

Last Thursday, the Oakland County Osteopathic Auxiliary met at Kingsley Inn for dinner with their doctor-husbands.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Brown, Oxford, provided the program for the group, showing pictures and lecturing on their trip to the Bahamas.

We Heard It Said By:

B'HAM MAYOR CHARLES RENFREW: "This banquet (recognizing the length of service of city employees, to be held Feb. 23) is long overdue. It is with pride that we find we have so many loyal employees."

Local Serviceman To Go to Germany

Specialist 3rd Class Marvin E. Green, whose wife, Irene, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orval E. Green, live at 16991 Beechwood, Birmingham, will leave for Germany this month. He will take part in "operation gyroscop," the army's unit rotation plan.

Specialist Green's unit, the 11th airborne division will replace the 5th infantry division in Europe. Green, a graduate of Birmingham high school, entered the army in 1954.

Dr. Skinner Attends MSU Conference

Dr. Thomas J. Skinner, 1501 N. Woodward, Birmingham, received advanced training at the 53rd annual post graduate conference for veterinarians held at Michigan State University last week.

More than 500 veterinarians from Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and other midwestern states attended the conference sponsored by the M. S. U. College of Veterinary Medicine.
