

The world's opinion may be of lesser value than the genuine respect and admiration of one who knows you well. For the world's hand-clapping responds to the evidence of many things; it sees only surface conditions. — Close friends feel heartiest.

Back at College After Marriage

Barbara Jean Black was married to Philip William Dondoro at Christ church, Cranbrook, in an evening candlelight service last Dec. 28. The bride is the daughter of the Perry Blacks of Birmingham and the groom's parents are the Edward Dondoros of Huntington Woods.

Cranbrook Italian silk fashioned the bride's gown, made with pearls and lace trim and a chapel train. She carried a prayer book with white flowers and ivy.

Teetah Dondoro, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and Julia Keydel, Betty Rameil and Fritz Foss were bridesmaids. All wore scarlet velvet and carried nosegays of red and white carnations.

DAVE Dondoro was his brother's best man, with Bob and Jim Davidson, Don Fracassi and Fred Ward as ushers.

Mrs. Black wore olive green taffeta with bronze accessories. Mrs. Dondoro was in royal blue chiffon and matching accessories. Both mothers' flowers were white orchids.

Couples Attending 57th Birthday Ball

Several Birmingham area couples plan to attend the Detroit University club's 57th annual "Birthday Ball" Saturday evening.

Reservations for a party of six for the dinner dance are held by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Hyde, Washington road, Bloomfield village. Another party of six will be hosted by the Stephens C. Millers, Elton road, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bushnell, South Bates street, and the Gordon Loren, Abbey road, all of Birmingham, will also be there.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Betrothal Reveals Fall Altar Plans

Marjorie Crook's engagement to Marvin Wilkie is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crook, 138 Hupp Cross road, Bloomfield Village. Marvin's parents are the Mr. L. W. Wilkes of Rochester.

Both attended the Business Institute in Pontiac. A fall wedding is planned.

Baby After 18 Years

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT D. BRENNAN, 1844 Bird street, have a baby daughter, Linda Ellen. Born Nov. 4, Linda is the Brennan's first child after 18 years of marriage.

Mrs. Margaret McDonald Brennan, Longmeadow drive, Bloomfield Hills is the baby's paternal grandmother. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hogan, Elm avenue, Birmingham, are the maternal grandparents.
