Original Etchings, Venetian Mosaics At Little Gallery

Painter, etcher, musician, cinema-ballet producer, Sam Kane can be seen daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., January 30, through March 4 at the Little Gallery on East Maple.

Having developed a new technique of color etching that of using a deeply etched copper plate for coloring in relief and intaglio at the same time, Kane is now experimenting with a new medium which combines color and light.

By setting transparent venetian glass in patterns into opaque white glass and putting a light behind, he achieves a richness of color and new dichotomy of light and shadow as might be obtained by crossing a Persian rug with Times Square at midnight.
