

Brothers Attend Dad-Son Parties

Jimmy and Roddy Henderson, sons of the Edward L. Hendersons, North Glenhurst drive, Birmingham, had a big week of father and son activities during the holiday season.

They attended a father-son party Dec. 28 at the Detroit Rotary club, where Soupy Sales entertained. On Dec. 29, they attended another father and son event, this one, given by the D.A.C. Beavers, where the program featured a talented canine performer.

Holiday Activities Keep Village Residents Busy

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Byrnes of Burning Bush flew to St. Paul, Minn., this week where Mr. Byrnes will be an usher at the wedding of Stan Day of Grosse Pointe and Lynn Weyhaeuser of St. Paul. After a whirl of pre-nuptial parties the Byrnes will return home on Saturday.

The Robert Backstroms of Glenview entertained some 20 guests at a buffet dinner in their home during the holiday season.

Young Stanley Dawson III of Hamilton blvd. had seven guests for dinner at a party preceding Miss Young's Christmas party.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale C. Welch, Jr. of Clifton road entertained a group of neighbors at a holiday get-together in their home.

The guests who were entertained at the William Todd home on Drury lane Christmas Eve were pleasantly pleased with the fact that the entire house was in candlelight, from the antique candelabrum on the mantel, the coffee table arrangement and the buffet table.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Travis Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. Don Murray, Dr. and Mrs. John Sigson, Mr. and Mrs. John Stringer and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byerley and daughter Pat.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd left shortly after Christmas for a short stay at their Gibson Island, Maryland, home, located near Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Wilson of Waddington road entertained at an open house in their home the evening of the 27th of December. The lovely family room which is a new addition to the Wilson home was open for the occasion and helped accommodate the large number of guests who enjoyed the buffet and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Judge W. Bearden of Tottenham also entertained at an open house last Thursday evening.

Newcomers to the village are Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. O'Neill and their two sons, Chuck, 11, and Jeff, 9. Both boys will attend the village school. The O'Neills are former Royal Oak residents and Mr. O'Neill is affiliated with Standard Mortgage Corporation of Detroit. The O'Neills are members of Oakland Hills Country Club.
