Teen-Aged Set Hold First Party of Monthly Series

The "teen-age" set gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Groves on Hampstead road last Wednesday. As this was the first meeting of the group, Mrs. John Calhoun of Bellevue, had name tags and several introduction games planned.

After games and records, supper was served to 26. Baked beans, sloppy joes, relishes, milk, ice-cream and homemade cookies made up the menu.

Assisting Mrs. Groves were Mrs. William Kres, Bellevue Trail, Mrs. William Harris and Mrs. Kenneth Kittle of Westlady road. The evening's entertainment was skating at the new roller rink on Eight Mile near Telegraph.

Mother felt the party a success because the question was raised, "Will we do this again next month?" Mrs. John Calhoun will meet with her committee to plan the January meeting.

As usual Dr. and Mrs. Seeburger

Howells and Mr. and Mrs. George Karcher of Dearborn, the Stanley Grations, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Vokes and Mrs. Vern Riggs of Detroit.

Continuing with the holiday festivities, the Lakins entertained Miss Marjorie Booth and Miss Anna Dawson from Toronto, Ontario, Canada, for the New Year weekend.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

It has been a very busy week at the Rudy Videgars of Bellevue Trail. Cocktail parties on Tuesday and Wednesday for close friends followed by a surprise birthday party for young John who was 13 on Friday.

The guest list included 20 swimming buddies with whom John has spent a great deal of time at Plum Hollow.

John's parents fulfilled his birthday wish with a tank for tropical fish. John selected his own fish to get him started on his hobby.

Chuck Sawyer, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Sawyer of Westlady road, had a full house last Thursday evening. Fifty of Chuck's friends, some from the University of Detroit and Michigan State, showed up for an evening of fun and dancing. Buffet supper was served later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nylund of Eastlady road had a most pleasant package under their tree this year. On December 25, daughter Diana and husband Dr. David Bennett of Atlanta, Ga., presented the Nylands with a granddaughter, Stili Nyland Bennett.

Mrs. Nylund left on Wednesday to be with Diana for the next two weeks.

Bill and Alma Flajole of Breeze-court held open house for friends and neighbors New Year's Eve. Staying for the evening were the Gordon Kendalls of Smallwood court, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Matson of Garden City, Bill's brother, the Richard Flajoles and Mr. Murray Kendall of Franklin Village.

PAT ISAACSON and Elaine Timassey, members of Lathrup Girl Scout Troop 165, try out a flying saucer on the ice at Camp Narrin during a holiday outing.

Girl Scouts Bring Life To Deserted Camp Narrin

LATHRUP—Sandy McColl, Mary Lou Hines, Elaine Timassey, Marie Ellen Goddard, Sharon Walter, Barbara Craig, Pat Isaacson, Nancy Jo Gilderleeve and Joan Viale of Girl Scout Troop 165, brought deserted Camp Narrin to life last Thursday.

Exploring the camp grounds, the girls found a big new toboggan slide sadly awaiting a heavy snow. Smokey, the camp cat, so petted and pampered in summer, but so lonely in winter.

Although the ice on Lake Narrin was a little wet, the skating party

Election Feb. 2 on Utility Franchise

WEST BLM. TWP.—Township trustees have called an election for Feb. 2 to gain public authorization of a 30-year franchise to Consumers Power Co.

Clerk Frank Hallett said the franchise would not limit other companies or provide an exclusive franchise to Consumers Power. Election will be held at regular township voting stations.

Suspect Juveniles Of Breaking Window

BLM. TWP.—Juveniles are suspected of breaking a window in the former Briggs Estate home at Squirrel and E. Long Lake roads last week, according to Police Chief Clark M. Green.

Owners of the building, who use the building as a private elph house for area residents, feared a break-in, but nothing was taken or disturbed, said Green.

New Year Greeted by Area Residents in Many Places

The New Year was greeted by the residents of East Beverly in many different ways and places.

Eight-year-old Michael Reynolds decided to have a New Year's party with his buddies. Because of age, which he didn't have quite enough of to stay up until midnight, he asked Douglas Pearl, Terry Jack, Fred Dindorfer and Danny Taggart over for an afternoon of fun and dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Laffoon waited until the right hour for their guests of Happy New Year and were at the Birmingham Country Club when the hour arrived. Earlier in the evening they attended open houses at Mr. and Mrs. John Yozala in Dearborn and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Peters, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Stuart VorBroker invited neighbors on Wetherby to celebrate New Year's Eve with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meek of Rosemore were guests of the Gordon De Boards in Birmingham when the New Year arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. James Westcott of Dunblaine hosted a New Year's Eve party for a few of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fries of Beverly celebrated New Year's Eve party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curt Lindauer in Detroit. On Monday the Frieses and children, Brennis and Kristin gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fries in Lavonia for a big family get-together.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jacks, son Terry and daughter Beverly returned to their home on Verona Circle after spending the Christmas holidays with Grandma and Grandpa Jacks in Cadiz, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schuck feel very much at home at 20405 14 Mile road. Although they moved here just recently from New York, they were former Detroiters. They have an 11-year-old son Michael and three daughters, Barbara Ann, 9, Deidre, 8, and little Lori, 10 months.

The family have one sport in common—swimming—all except little Lori, but the way she loves her bath, the Schucks are sure she is going to be another water enthusiast.

Schuck is a sailor at heart and has his own sailboat. They spend their summers at their cottage at Runny Run on Long Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Schuck were happy to see many old friends at a New Year's Eve party in Detroit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Corval. Schuck is employed by Turner Printing.

As a Christmas gift, each of the

Brownies in Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Troop 611 presented her mother with a statue of the Madonna as which she herself painted. The girls were proud of their achievement but so were their leaders, Mrs. Charles Grenier and Mrs. Adam Zimmerman and their mothers.

Kathleen Driscoll celebrated her ninth birthday Saturday afternoon with the help of her friends. The girls played games, saw cartoons and enjoyed the cake and ice cream.

Guests were Mary Joan Franz, Sally Hoffman, Pat Kell, Mary Marie Kelly, Sandra Kopf, Joanne Labadie, Susan Mahr, Margaret McCartney, Carol Press, Sarah Regalby, Paulette Rondeau, Teri Seibert and Barbara Skowron.

Others were Nancy Talpos, Frances Thurber, Theo Warren, Diane Tracy, Kathy Shells, and Bonnie Vorbroker. Kathleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Driscoll of 16187 Wetherby.

Mr. and Mrs. Don E. Proctor, 16945 Kirkshire held a New Year's Day birthday dinner for Mrs. Proctor's mother, Mrs. George A. Baucht. Besides the honor guest and her husband, all of her children and 22 grandchildren were present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baucht, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baucht were from Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. David Baucht from Lincoln Park and Mr. and Mrs. George Baucht from Royal Oak. Mrs. Baucht's other daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clark came from Royal Oak.

Garden Club Meets

EAST BEVERLY — Women's National Farm and Garden association, Beverly branch, will hold a business meeting Jan. 12 at the home of Mrs. George Bowden, 7210 Beechwood at 8 p.m. Under discussion will be a fund raising project for the community beautification work.
