Progressive Dinner Marks End of Holiday Entertaining

Neighbors in the Cimarron court area are winding up the season of merriment with a real gala next Saturday. Beginning at the Wendell Hinkle home on Indian Trail, they will start on a progressive dinner which is apt to take them well on into the night.

Co-hosts with the Riggins for pre-dinner cocktails are the David Robertsons and the Jack McGraws. Soup and salad, courses will be served at the James Sweeney home on Cimarron court, where the Don Wallers will act as co-hosts.

The Richard Browns, of Tahquamenon court, will have the Richard Goodwins as co-hosts in serving the main course, and dessert quillards on Tahquamenon court, with the Robert Kirkpatrick as co-hosts. The nighttime gathering will be at the Carl H. Clendenings, on Long Pine road.

A chop suey supper with Chinese fortune cookies containing a New Year's prediction for each guest wound up the party last Saturday at the Dale Brubaker home on South Clunbury.

Seeing the New Year in together were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Badenech, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hollis, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. John McKee, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor and the William Bunnells.

The Ray Marlines, of South Clunbury road, have been happy to have Peggy's mother and brother from Chicago, Mrs. Axel Johnson and William Johnson, here with them for Christmas week.

On New Year's Eve the Marlines entertained a group of old friends at a lively balloon-dicked party. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kahaley, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Sinder, Mr. and Mrs. William Berghoff, Dr. and Mrs. Chester Boone, Mr. and Mrs. William Snyder and Bill Johnson.

The Richard Holmes of West Darnmore road made a trip to Madison, New Jersey, to enable the children, Teddy and Jamie, to spend Christmas with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Griffith.

Punch, hors d'oeuvres and dainty sandwiches were served at a large tea given at the John R. Bull home on West Darnmore on Dec. 29. Co-hosting the party with Mrs. Bull were Mrs. Harold Huston and Mrs. Charles MacGregor.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

A group of youngsters took time out last Thursday afternoon to gather at the Jack-Bek home on Sunnyside drive for a birthday party in honor of Tommy Bek, who became six years old. Joining in the games, ice cream and cake were J. W. and Stevie Alken, Rolf Weeks, Bobby Speicher, Timmy Latham, Pat Grobagger and Tommy Kaljola.

"Now, Harry?" asked the teacher, "to what family does the whale belong?"

"I don't know," replied Harry. "Nobody in our neighborhood has one."

Pheasant Breakfast Served At Alfred Kasemeyer Home

Pheasant breakfast was served at the Alfred Kasemeyer home on Worlington road, Dec. 26 from 11:00 to 2:30. Upon arrival, guests were served Tom and Jerry's, followed by special holiday fruit-put and creamed pheasant on English muffins.

Enjoying this novel holiday feast were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pfeiffer, Mr. and David Goodfellow, all of Wing Lake. Also present were Mr. Goodfellow's sister, Isabel Goodfellow and her friend, Miriam Farr from Montreal, Canada, holiday guests at the Goodfellow home.

Ushering in the New Year with hors d'oeuvres and cocktails, the Kasemeyers entertained Jan. 2 for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kemeley, Mr. and Mrs. James Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Townsend and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Casson.

Entertaining in honor of their holiday houseguests, the David Goodfellow gave a cocktail party Christmas Eve in their Worlington road home.

Other guests were the Hardings, and the Kasemeyers and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kiefer and son, John, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Short, all of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunsing, of Wing Lake. From Detroit came Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilson and daughters Kathryn and Mary Sue.

At a Christmas dinner, the Goodfellow hosted their houseguests and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Duncan of Birmingham and Prof. Catherine B. Heller of Ann Arbor.

The Hardings had as guests for Christmas cocktails, Mr. and Mrs. Don Richards and daughter Janet and Mr. and Mrs. A. McChesney and daughter Virginia of Birmingham.

Following cocktails, the party went to Christmas smorgasbord dinner at Rotunda Inn.

Returning to the Harding home,

Mental Health Topic Of Walnut Lake PTA Meeting Jan. 9

WALNUT LAKE — "Effects of Mental Health in the School," will be the topic of discussion at the Walnut Lake school PTA meeting Jan. 9.

Owen F. Stemmeln, principal of Hawthorn school in Detroit, will make the introductory speech and moderate the panel.

Stemmeln, considered an authority in this field, is much sought after as a speaker on the subject of the need for mental health and coordination of home and school in treatment.

Panel of parents will include Mrs. Arthur Schueley, Mrs. Richard Freund, Paul Carter and Herbert Marx. The audience will have an opportunity to ask questions and participate in group discussion.

Following the meeting, refreshments will be served.

House Plants Topic Of WNFG Meeting

WALNUT LAKE — "House Plants" will be the topic of the next meeting of the Walnut Lake division of the Women's National Farm and Garden association, and the informal discussion will be followed by an exchange between members of their favorite varieties.

The meeting will be held Monday afternoon, Jan. 9, at the home of Mrs. Lester Johns, on Westmore road. On the tea committee are Mrs. Edward C. Sintz and Mrs. Neil Lund.
