sports Smaller Fitzgerald Tops Birmingham, 43-36

By DICK KELLEY Sports Editor

SOME OF THE more as-te football experts may ve been confused by a play the final minutes of the se Bowl game on television threw a desperation pass which fell harmlessly to the ground.

The official signaled a penalty against the Uclans for "intentionally grounding the ball" which announcer Mel Allen translated for the watching sudience.

Now here is where the confusion arises. In tentional grounding of the ball is penalized by a five-yard penalty from the point of the foul that the point of the foul that some which would have been also a safety for Michigan State and a 16-14 lead. What really happened was this: the official changed the call to "an ineligible pass receiver downfield" which constitutes pass interference and a fifteen-yard penalty from the line of scrimmage, or in this case to the one-yard line of UCLA.

This is what happened but wasn't explained to the TV audience who were left guessing on the play.
