

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

SOUTH OAKLAND WATER AUTHORITY has a new chairman, E. M. Shafter, city manager of Royal Oak. He succeeds Birmingham's director of Public Works, L. R. Gare, who becomes vice chairman of the authority.

"PEOPLE CERTAINLY READ THE ECENTRIC" exclaimed Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn, 451 Park, Birmingham. "I'm getting get-well cards and notes from people all over the area, but I'm not as sick as that page one story last week would have me." She was referring to a news release from the Detroit-Union Foundation which said she was resigning from her UF post as director of the Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin area because she was "seriously ill." To the contrary, I'm feeling much better, and am sticking closer to home, although I have been getting up occasionally," she explained.

SEEING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS of children in our schools and churches never ceases to amaze this Wanderer. Another delightful example of the learning and skill youngsters acquire under the guidance of good teachers turned up at Community Congregational church in Lathrup recently. We heard 20 or so youngsters, each using a plastic toy well, play "Familiar" as well as more than 100 songs, listening to a high recording of this Shilohus, Mrs. Edward Caster, music teacher at the church's vacation Bible school, rang up a real achievement in teaching the youngsters to make such pretty music.

TWO MORE INCENTIVES for some sort of a rapid transit system into Detroit were added last week to Woodward avenue. That's more than 100 feet of Normandy and Webster avenues in Royal Oak. These cross streets are the half-mile points between 12, 13 and 14 Mile roads.

A YOUNG MISS—all of 6 years old—approached the utility foreman as a utility "repair" crew working in Birmingham's northeast section. "You're not doing work," she commented to the foreman. "You're the boss!"

ABOUT $750 arrived along with the Fourth of July for Chris Bailey, Birmingham mailman. The $750 is a present from Birmingham merchants, according to Mrs. Laura Kurth, 290 S. Woodward. The veteran mail carrier underwent another major operation last week, our blood transfusions were needed following the operation, so four pints of blood need replacing at the Red Cross center. Red Cross officials say they will credit one unit of every two pints of blood donated at a Birmingham residence to Chris' account. Offered at Strath Memorial hospital in Detroit, where Chris is convalescing, call his condition "very good."

YOU MAY SAVE YOURSELF a lot of confusion and hard feelings if you check first with the building or police departments before allowing that political candidate's sign to be posted. Birmingham prohibits them on public property, and they must conform to type and size of signs if on private property. Police and building officials already have gone into action against the prohibited variety.

THAT SHINY ANTIQUE CAR you may have seen around the area for the past few days came all the way from Minneapolis. But not under its own power, although it still runs like a charm and purred its way down the Shriners' Detroit parade route. The 1908 Maxwell was towed here behind the Cadillac of Dr. Norvel, who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Carlisle, of Scott, of Lane Lake road, Bloomfield township. "Scotty" and Norvel both attended the Oriental extravaganza in Detroit.

THE SHRINE CONVENTION in Detroit afforded an opportunity for Mrs. M. Ray Cook of Townsend avenue and her cousin, Walter C. Gray, imperial potentate of the Mystic Shrine of North America. Mr. and Mrs. Cook motored into the city for a visit with Gray and his wife Laura, whose home is in Little Rock, Ark.

ORIGINAL SCRIPT AND SONGS, combined with some ingenious handling of puppets and marionettes, added up to a fine show for one Birmingham neighborhood Wednesday. It was the work of Paul Kuebler, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kuebler, 288 Highland, W. Carlisle, who is the year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Robertson, 1152 Lakeside. After collecting their ten cents admission charge, the youngsters were pulled back for a splendid view of artist Larry's original handiwork. The show, with most of the neighborhood children in at least one of the acts, then began its successful run.

Troy Twp. Officials Will Re-submit Annexation Offer

TROY—New officers of the small portion of Troy which is still a township, met Monday night to re-submit a new township government for their 21-square-mile annexation.

They also decided to submit a proposal requesting annexation to the city of Troy, on the November 10 election. This was done when the annexation question was put to them recently. Only four persons attended.

Leonard M. Fandale, 37 of 1920 Walnut, was named supervisor of the township, bounded by Square Lake, Crooks, Wattles and Adams roads. Fandale is the only member of the old township having the right to file for office in the new township government.

There are an estimated 20 families included in the present township.

Other officers are Gordon T. Forsyth, 4205 Rocks, and Wilson Dold, Jr., 1132 Wattles, trustees; Norman E. Florin, 1284 W. Wiggins, clerk; and Mrs. O. M. Smith, 2265 Crooks, treasurer. Walter Parmenter, 822 Crooks road, was appointed township justice of the peace.

Enters Guilty Plea

An employee of a local store pleaded guilty Monday to charges of larceny by conversion on his arraignment before Judge Clark J. Adams, Douglas E. Blake, 18, of Royal Oak, entered the plea on charges brought by the Sportsman Club. He will be sentenced July 22.
