

Some people who would never think of reaching into your pocketbook and steal, may perform another form of thievery more disastrous... which is to steal another's good reputation through the device of idle gossip. Great harm comes from this.

Committee Women Make Plans at Tea For 'Save the Children' Benefit

KAREN VANDERKLOOT (left), who sponsors a "knitting program" for the Danish children at the William S. Knudsen home in Denmark, shows some of the completed garments to Lóis Fredericks, daughter of the Norman Fredericks of Lahser road. Ready for shipping are socks, scarves, sweaters and head wear.

CHAIRMAN of the Royal Danish Ballet committee, Mrs. Robert C. Vanderkloot (right) discusses plans for the October event at a tea Tuesday with Mrs. Alfred E. Gram, (left) vice chairman. With them is Mrs. Gram's sister-in-law, Mrs. H. K. Gram, who is visiting here from Denmark.

Danish Ballet To Appear In October

By FRAN MAIER

No matter how busy the season when a group of committee women have their hearts set on charity—plans can't get underway too soon. The Royal Danish Ballet Committee held a tea Tuesday to talk over plans for the Oct. 12 appearance of the Ballet at the Masonic Temple. The performers will benefit the National Board of Save the Children Federation in America.

MRS. ROBERT C. Vanderkloot was hostess in her home on Lone Pine road for a committee interested in this project. She is chairman of the Royal Danish Ballet committee in Detroit for Save the Children Federation.

Mrs. Alfred E. Gram, is vice chairman of the committee and director of the National Board of Save the Children Federation. Eleanor E. Grove is treasurer, Mrs. Cyrus R. Osborn, chairman of patronesses, and Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom is in charge of publicity.

The committee has taken over a large block of tickets for that particular performance.

AMONG those already listed as patronesses are Mrs. Paul McKenney and Mrs. John K. Stevenson, sisters of Mrs. Vanderkloot, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Simon E. Knudsen, and Mrs. Joseph G. Standart, Jr., whose father was the well-known Chilean Ambassador to Denmark, the late Hon. Henry Wessel. The list continues with Mrs. William T. Gossett, Mrs. Lester L. Colbert, Mrs. Robert Critchfield, Mrs. George T. Trumbull, Mrs. Henry C. Johnson, Mrs. Fred L. Black, Mrs. James A. Beresford, Mrs. William H. Klenke, Jr., Mrs. Ernest Jones, Mrs. William B. Hargreaves, Mrs. Thomas S. Torgerson, Mrs. Martin Butzel and Mrs. Edward E. Rochman.

WHEN the Royal Danish Ballet appears in the numerous American cities, one performance in each city is taken over by a local group for charity.

In New York it is a hospital for special surgery that will benefit, in Boston, a crippled child's home, and in Detroit, the National Board of Save the Children Federation in America. Serving as national sponsors are such persons as Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Herbert Hoover, Ralph W. Sockman, George E. Bushnell, James A. Farley and Mrs. Fred M. Vinson.

THE VANDERKLOOT'S daughter is among the younger set who (See BENEFIT, Page 2, Sec. 2)

MOM AND DAD—Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Colbert (left) join in on the entertainment for Sarah (center) along with the party hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Welty.

A Picnic Supper for Sarah

On the rustic stockade type fence of the Burning Bush home of the Walcott Welty's hung a shield Colberts of Martel drive, Bloomfield Hills, along with Sarah's younger acquaintances, gathered by stars—the wedding date of Sarah Colbert to A. Grant Noble, Jr. At the end of the red, white and blue streamers feet two American flags.

Family friends of the Lester C. Colberts of Martel drive, Bloomfield Hills, along with Sarah's younger acquaintances, gathered by stars—the wedding date of Sarah Colbert to A. Grant Noble, Jr. At the end of the red, white and blue streamers feet two American flags.

Places were laid at gaily decorated tables, set around the center table where the younger set congregated for pink lemonade and dainty goodies.

In the background, an atmosphere of music was created by strolling musicians.

POURING PUNCH for his sister, Sarah, is Nick Colbert. Among her young friends were (from left) Denise Baldwin, Peter Welty, Judy Newberg, Peter Bradlock, Nancy Carlisle and Judy Averill.

Suburban Scene

by BARBARA GANSCHOW

Martz-Graves Rites Set

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Starr are scheduled to arrive next week from New City, N. Y., to participate in the pre-nuptial festivities leading up to the marriage of their daughter, Lee Graves, to Richard E. Martz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Martz of Oak road, Bloomfield township.

Lee is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Martz, Jr., in Pontiac. St. James Episcopal church, Birmingham, will be the scene of the July 21 rites with a reception at the Lone Pine road home of Mr. and Mrs. Gray Farr of Bloomfield Hills.

Spending Summer in Canada

Mrs. G. W. Ferree of Villa road is spending the summer with her family and friends in Vancouver, British Columbia. Mr. Ferree will join her late this month, stopping en

Engagement Announced

An October wedding is being planned by Grace Mack and Robert G. Campbell. Their betrothal was made known Friday at a family dinner by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ross Mack of Old Salem court, Birmingham.

Grace is a graduate of Bennett junior college, Millbrook, N. Y., and University of Michigan. She is a member of Birmingham Junior League.

Robert, the son of Mrs. Wilfred W. Campbell of Redding road and the late Mr. Campbell, a l.s.o. graduated from U of M, where he was affiliated with Chi Phi fraternity.

(See SUBURBAN SCENE, Page 2, Sec. 2)

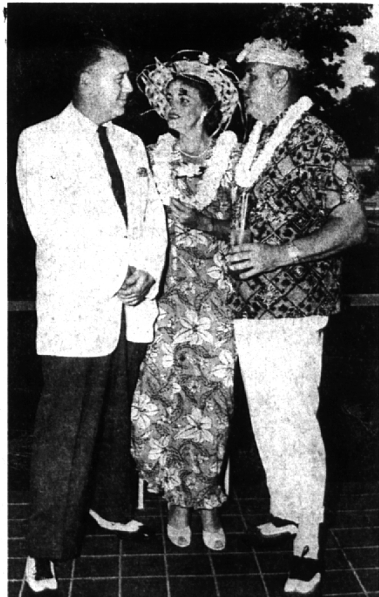

GRACE MACK

Pine Lake Country Club Scene of Authentic Hawaiian Party

PRESIDENT OF PINE LAKE COUNTRY CLUB, H. T. Gierok (from left) of Lake Park, Birmingham, with the newest member of the club C. P. Dillman and C. P. Livingston. Seated are their wives (from left) Mrs. Livingston, Mrs. Gierok and Mrs. Dillman.

GARBED in their version of native costumes are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tuohy with Hermann Brunn (left).

Native Costumes Donned, Entertainment on Patio

By FRAN MAIER

Customs of Hawaii were brought to Pine Lake Country club Saturday night when members held their annual Hawaiian party. Palms and authentic flowers of the islands provided a gay setting for members and guests as they entered the lobby. Around the fireplace was an arrangement of pandanus, hau fern, monstera and various other greens. Nestled in the display were pineapples, coconuts and carnation leis.

Colorful prints in a variety of shades and patterns were donned by the feminine contingent who were decked with leis of real flowers as well as artificial ones. The male companions went along with the idea and came in their printed sports shirts. AS GUESTS approached the dining area—a vivid array of colors was displayed. At the entrance, which gave the appearance of growing there—stood anthurium, heliconia, torch ginger and bird of paradise.

On the tables were pineapples filled with fresh fruits, topped with miniature umbrellas and surrounded by leis. From the picture windows overlooking the lake hung bamboo baskets of Hawaiian foliage and flowers.

Dancing on the patio continued until an early morning hour to island music furnished by native Hawaiians garbed in authentic costumes, with entertainment by a hula dancer.

MEMBERS AND THEIR GUESTS at the gaily decorated tables are (from left) Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown of Norfolk drive, Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barrett of Westchester Way, Birmingham, A. H. Kleine, club manager, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vandekerck and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Baumrucker of Buckingham, Birmingham.