Teens and Post-Teens to Model

A fashion show featuring teen-age through young married members as models will be the event for the July bridge luncheon at Oakland Hills country club. The show is scheduled for Wednesday, July 25, at noon.

Mrs. Carl Sundberg will be the senior chairman of a committee composed of Mrs. Lloyd Diehl, Jr., Pat Flaherty, representing the college set, Susan Sundberg, high school, and Janet Wasson, engaged.

The Brooks Brothers, a young "combo" led by Jim Ewing and assisted by his friends from Cranbrook, will furnish the music.

The Village store will furnish the clothes.

There will be a dress rehearsal and coke party at the club at 3 p.m., Tuesday, July 24.

has an interest in charity. Not only does she have an interest in the American Federation, but also the needy children in Denmark.

Last summer when Karen visited Save the Children Federation in Rebild, Denmark, named after her grandfather, the late William S. Knudsen, she became very interested in the work being done for the needy children in Denmark and become sponsor of a "knitting group" of Danish ladies who have worked for the project since 1939.

With winters very cold in Denmark the need for warm clothing is great and among garments knitted by Karen's group, and in demand, are sweaters, socks, scarves and head gear.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Mrs. Marr Home from Europe

On board the Queen Elizabeth when it docked in New York last week were Mrs. Richard H. Marr of Fairfax avenue and her sister, Miss Hertha Bonning of Detroit. They were returning from a two-month trip to France, England and the Scandinavian countries. Another traveler at the Fairfax address is Margaret Marr, who, with Virginia Kimball, will leave in a few weeks for a month in Hawaii.

Neighborhood Celebrates 4th

Hosts to 35 neighbors on the fourth of July were Dr. and Mrs. Harold Ott and Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Lewis, both of Lake Park drive. A "flapjack" breakfast was served on the Otts' terrace, with badminton and swimming in the Lewis' pool adding to the guests' enjoyment.

Present for the occasion were the Frank Laucomers, Mrs. James Fen and son, the Leroy E. Kiefers and son, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Hutcheson, the Paul McDonalds and daughter, James Switzer and Mr. and Mrs. David J. Underdown and daughter.

Also enlivening the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Graham Shinnick and their two daughters, Dr. and Mrs. Milton Stuecheli and their five children and the Fred Johnsons and daughter.

Kappa Kappa Gammas

The garden of the R. G. English home on Dunston road, Bloomfield Hills, will be the scene Tuesday afternoon when North Woodward alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma entertains the active members of the sorority.

Assisting Mrs. English will be officers of the afternoon and evening groups, Mrs. Robert Riordan, Mrs. James Wichert, Mrs. John Paul Morrow, Mrs. Milton Ringland, Mrs. Rollin Gish, Mrs. Leland Pence, Mrs. Gordon Boling, Mrs. William Worcester, Mrs. Richard Henne, Mrs. Adrian Vonderhaar and Mrs. Arthur Prine.

Mrs. Pence and Mrs. Donald L. Richardson are taking reservations for the event, which is to start with punch at 5:30 followed by buffet supper at 6:30.

Son's Fiancee Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Walsh of Bates street invited several friends over for buffet supper recently to meet their prospective daughter-in-law, Patricia Kildee, who was visiting from Lebanon, Pa. Their son, Robert, Jr., and Patricia graduated from Pennsylvania State university last month. They've made no definite wedding plans.

MRS. EDYTHE C. Peck, assistant cashier and director of public relations at Birmingham National bank, will speak on "The Homemaker as a Businesswoman" at the "College in a capsule" for homemakers July 17-20 at Michigan State university. Approximately 1400 Michigan homemakers are expected to attend the conference, which features classes in such subjects as family living and community leadership, plus a recreational and inspirational program for homemakers. Mrs. Peck lives at 1332 Maryland.

Newlywed Lumsdens Back From Cuba Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lumsden have returned from a three-week honeymoon in Florida and Cuba and are residing on Melton road in Birmingham.

Their marriage was solemnized June 16 in Trinity Methodist church, Highland Park. The bride is the former Margaret Louise Kubert, daughter of the Frank Kuberts of Highland Park. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lumsden of Trombley street, Troy township.

MARGARET chose for her wedding a white silk gown designed with short tulle sleeves and portrait neckline with a flower motif appliqued on the bodice front. With it, she wore sink gauntlets and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Pink crystalette ballerina length frocks were worn by the bride's attendants. Two sisters of the groom, Esther and Joanne Lumsden, served as maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively, and Loucila Kilmer of Highland Park was also a bridesmaid.

BEST MAN was Robert Wesler of Royal Oak and Larry Kind of Redford and Jack Acton of Birmingham seated guests.

After a reception in the church parlors, the newlyweds boarded their priavte plane for the wedding trip.

'Enjoy It While You're Here' Is Will-O-Way Theme

The story of a family whose answer to "you can't take it with you" is "enjoy it while you're here" opens Tuesday at Will-O-Way Playhouse.

"The Happy Time" should provide audiences at Michigan's senior "straw-hat" theatre with all the amusement that the title implies.

One of the most successful of the Rogers and Hammerstein productions, the plot centers around the irresponsible and self-indulgent Bonnard family.

The clan Bonnard is ruled by a level-headed Scottish mother who is at her wit's end to prevent her teen-age son from being imbued with the male Bonnards' sometimes bizarre advice on affaires d'amour.

The degree of success that her efforts meet with is the crux of the heartwarming story.
