William Dyes Attend Wedding Of Future Terrace Residents

Mr. and Mrs. William Dye, 967 Brooklawn, Troyton Manor, returned recently from a trip to Saginaw and Midland. While in Saginaw, they attended a wedding of Susan Willets of Saginaw to Frederick Beattie of Detroit.

Mr. Dye was one of the ushers at the ceremony. They were also present at the rehearsal dinner, and Mrs. Dye attended a breakfast party held in honor of the bride, prior to the wedding. After attending the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Dye visited relatives in Midland and returned to Birmingham the next day.

The newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Beattie, will reside in the Graceland Terraces on their return from their honeymoon.

Graceland Terraces lost two of its long-time residents last week when they moved to newly purchased homes elsewhere in Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Page Noll, Jr. and small daughter, Helen Elizabeth, moved to their new home on Bradford drive in Westchester Village. Also moving from Graceland on the same day were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Overman and their two young sons. Their new home is in Adams Village, in Birmingham.

Among new residents on Renwood are Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Burd and three sons, Jeffrey, 3, Stephen, 1½, and Douglas, 4 months old. The Burds moved to Birmingham from Akron, Ohio where Mr. Burd was, and still is, associated with the B. P. Goodrich Co. Both Mr. and Mrs. Burd graduated from Juniata college, in Huntington, Pa. Mr. Burd is a golf enthusiast. Mrs. Burd formerly taught home economics in Pennsylvania.

Kathy Kintworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kintworth of Graceland road, Troyton Manor, celebrated her first birthday Friday at her parents' home with a few of her contemporaries and their mothers from the Troyton area.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Craig of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, entertained at a patio-brunch Sunday morning for a few of their immediate neighbors from the area. They served a hearty meal of pancakes and sausages, prepared outdoors on grills, and with much aid and advice from a few of the guests.

These edibles, along with coffee, were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Case, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Young, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hibbert, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kaufmann, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shulte and Mr. and Mrs. Tom McDonnell. After brunch, everyone took turns at the Craig's new ping pong table.

More newcomers to the area are Dr. and Mrs. James Hoyce and their three children, Jimmy, 5½, Danny, 2½, and Anne, two

Dr. Hoyce graduated from General Motors Institute, and received his Doctorate at Purdue University. He is in the process of developing a section at GM Tech Center. Mrs. Hoyce attended the University of Kansas, and is a member of Sigma Kappa.

Couple Wed Saturday In Presbyterian Rites

Ivory peau de sole taffeta was worn by Jean Righter for her marriage to Edward Bolle at 11:30 a.m., Saturday. The Rev. Robert Graham read the double ring rites in the First Presbyterian church before 300 guests.

The bride of Jean's bride gown of empire style was covered with chalk white alencon lace which also formed the long sleeves. Points of lace accented the rounded neckline. Graceful folds of the full skirt fell into a trailing cathedral train. Her small cap of the ivory fabric was covered with matching alencon lace and held in place her three tiered fingertip veil. Orchids and lilies of the valley comprised her cascade bouquet.

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Price G. Righter, 975 Westwood drive, Birmingham, and the Ernest O. Bolles of Detroit.

ACTING as matron and maid of honor were Mrs. Robert Carly and Martha Prock, niece of the groom. Bridesmaids were Joan Rauch, Nancy McCarty of Philadelphia, cousin of the bride, Marian Cannon and Mrs. George V. Prock, sister of the groom.

All attendants were gowned in white embossed nylon over pale green taffeta with a dark green velvet sash. Scoop necklines and back fullness in the skirts accented the dresses. The honor attendants carried cascades of yellow carnations and wore halos of ivy and matching flowers and the 'maids' cascades of deep pink carnations and headbands of ivy and matching flower detail.

Robert Carly was best man. Seating the guests were Robert Thomas Hess, Robert Butler, Paul W. Knittel, Jr. and Roger R. Wood. John G. Oglesby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Oglesby, acted as ringbearer.

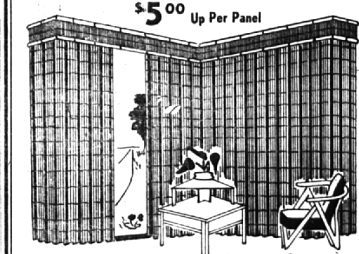

FOR HER daughter's wedding and reception following at Orchard Lake Country club, Mrs. Righter wore ice blue organza over matching silk taffeta trimmed with chambray lace. Edward's mother chose mauve silk organza over matching silk taffeta patterned with iridescent sequins. Both mothers had corsages of roses.

For her northern Michigan honeymoon the new Mrs. Bolle donned an Oleg Cassini navy blue Italian silk empire sheath with a portrait neckline.

They will make their home at a lake cottage until the completion of a new home in Bloomfield township.
