Family Reunions Highlight News of Area This Week

The Elmer Weeks of Lakeshire drive entertained at a smorgasbord dinner and swimming party on the Fourth in honor of their nephew John Korpela, home from three years in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Relatives at the party included John's grandmother, aunts, uncles, cousins, his sister and her family. His brother came from Ironwood for the occasion. Out of town friends attending were from Arlington, Va., and Vancouver, Wash., as well as Detroit.

Guests at the Donald Walker home on Raymond Place are Mr. Walker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Walker of Miami, Fla. A family reunion Sunday brought out all of the senior Mrs. Walker's brothers and sisters, their children and their children's families.

The couple will visit in Manistee before leaving for home. Mr. Walker is taking his vacation at the present time so he may be with his parents as much as possible.

A family reunion was held recently at the Jack Bek home on Sunnycreek drive, when Mrs. Bek and six children and sisters and their brothers came from Plymouth, Wayne, Detroit and Adrian to their father, L. A. Carlton, for a day. Mrs. Bek served a buffet dinner on the porch, and the guests spent the afternoon visiting and swimming.

William Route and Mr. and Mrs. Don Pike. A steak roast on the terrace was followed by lively games of charades.

The Ray Marlins of South Clunbury road, with Diane and Stephen, returned Saturday from a vacation spent at the congregational church camp. They were enthusiastic about the planned recreational facilities which gave all members of the family opportunities for fun.

Randall Sides of Wellesley, Mass., who is planning to move his family here soon, was a guest of the Edward C. Liebrechts of West Hartmoor road the past week. The Liebrechts are anticipating an August vacation at their summer home near Long Island, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hall of Langham drive have returned from a vacation to Baltimore, Md., where they visited both sets of parents.

On their trip, they stopped in Sandusky, Ohio, visited former neighbors in Cleveland, and friends in Pittsburgh. Coming home they spent the weekend as guests of friends in Beaver, Pa.

Mrs. Jack Souder, of South Clunbury road, is spending the week at a luncheon in honor of Harriet Snaddon, who sailed July 10 from Quebec for a European tour.

Guests were Mrs. Clarence Bewell, her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Allerton, Mrs. Roy Mattern, Mrs. Scott Lamb, Mrs. George Snaddon, mother of the honor guest, Mrs. Edmund Conover, her daughter Mrs. Robert Ward, Mrs. Ernest Green, Junior, Mrs. Harold Souder, and Mrs. David Wesley.

After lunch, the guests made up three tables of bridge for an afternoon of cards. The Souders were hosts on a previous weekend at a garden picnic for a group of teachers with their families from Redford Union high school.

Neighbors Gather at John Longley Home for Holiday Picnic Supper

There was lots of activity in Bingham Farms over the recent holiday. About 75 neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Longley for an afternoon of games followed by a picnic supper. The rest of the crowd then went into Birmingham to see the fireworks.

The Erwin Webers, of Apple Tree Lane, celebrated their son Walter's first birthday with a family picnic on the fourth. About 25 relatives came from Detroit and Wyandotte.

On that day too, the Stanley Warwick, Nottingham, hosted 18 friends from Detroit and Grosse Pointe.

A former Woodcreek resident, Mrs. Roger Overmyer, entertained the Woodcreek ladies' association at a picnic lunch last week at her home on Upper Straits.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Seaver, Wellington road, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Baugh, Mr. and Mrs. Carman Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward, with dinner and cards Saturday evening.

Maureen Clemons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Clemons, celebrated her tenth birthday Saturday with a party for 14 of her friends, at her home on Inkster.

Next Saturday Carol Gay, Marilyn Taylor, and Maureen Clemons leave for Judson Collins Methodist camp.

Rudy Hanson, chairman of the moving company, has asked for volunteers to report to the old Franklin church at 7:30 p.m., tomorrow night to help move things into the new building.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. James Ramsey of Bingham are planning a cook out supper for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cody, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Carson Bingham.

Sue Roseberry is now dancing with the Cecchetti seminar in Detroit. They are making an instructional film, depicting the history of ballet and the various techniques.

A copy will be kept in the Historical museum lending library in the trust, one in New York City and the Cecchetti group which will copy of the movie which will be lent to other ballet groups for study.

For the past two weeks Sue has been studying at the national ballet guild of Canada in Toronto, and will go back there later in the month for another two week period of intensive study. While she is gone, her sister, Sally, will teach her swimming pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. John Solaro returned yesterday to their home in Canterbury after vacationing at Harbor Beach.

Next Thursday evening Mrs. Robert Owens is having a family dinner party to celebrate her husband's birthday. Among the guests will be two aunts from Utica and New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Bingham always hope for good weather Tuesday nights. That's the time families gather at Orchard Lake country club for an outdoor picnic, followed by an evening of cards.

Saturday night the Binghamms entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carner for dinner.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Thomas entertained Mr. and Mrs. Nick Quint, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rosello, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hacker at a potluck supper, and bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hays and family are back in town after spending a few days traveling around the Upper Peninsula, stopping to see the copper mines and Tahquamenon Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Griffin and children have returned from the
