Former Graefield Residents Gather at Klintworth Home

If neighbors were wondering what was going on in the Phillip Klintworths' back yard on Graefield road last Saturday, it was a get-together of former Graefield Terrace residents.

After serving charcoal broiled steaks for dinner, the host and hostess entertained their guests by having them participate in several lively games. The group now boasts a couple of champions at "Guess the Ads" and "Pass the Lemon."

Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Judd Parker, now of Lehigh, Pa., and Mrs. Allan T. Ash, of Cambridge Village, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Young, Witherbee road, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mattson of Pennington, and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ford, Jr. of Henrietta street, Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. William Collawn, 925 Norwich and their three children, Laine, 5, Bobby, 3, and Jan, 1 recently returned from a two-week vacation in Washington, D.C. visiting Mr. Collawn's parents. They made the trip by plane. While there, they attended the graduation of Mr. Collawn's brother from the University of Maryland Medical school.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mosley of 1956 Witherbee road announce the arrival of Donald Mark, born at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac, June 27. The baby weighed 9 lbs. He has an eight-year-old sister, Becky.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ekberg, Graefield road, were among the 20 couples who were guests on a St. Clair cruise last week. The party left from East Jefferson late in the afternoon, sailing up to Lake St. Clair. Dinner was served on board and the party returned later that evening. The Ekbergs particularly enjoyed seeing again some of their MSU friends whom they had not seen for quite some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Trevillian, 1565 Witherbee, Troyton Manor, are entertaining Mrs. Trevillian's father, Mr. Joseph Kraft, of East Jordan, Mich. Mr. Kraft had been visiting another daughter in Cincinnati before stopping in Birmingham.

Barbara Hitt, of Long Beach, Calif., is spending the summer months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy D. Hitt on Graefield road. During the winter, Miss Hitt teaches school in Long Beach.

Mrs. Morris Sherbow, 2125 Derby road, returned to her home after driving to Silver Spring, Md., with her two sons, Mark, 10 and Jeffrey, 5. On the return trip, they met Mrs. Sherbow's mother, Mrs. Ruth Gobel, in Akron, Ohio. Mrs. Gobel then took Mark on to Chicago, Milwaukee, and other vacation spots in that area for an extended vacation. At the termination of the excursion, they will return to the area by taking the boat from Milwaukee, then motoring to Birmingham.

Mrs. Frederick Chapman, 1756 Graefield road, and daughter, Barbara, returned Saturday from a vacation trip to Iowa and Nebraska. They were accompanied by Mrs. Chapman's two sisters from Ann Arbor, and by a friend of Barbara's. They first drove to Sheboygan, Iowa, where they visited another of Mrs. Chapman's sisters, and stopped in Omaha, Neb., on the return trip to Birmingham.

Youth Music Course Completed at MSU

Jeanette Mänge, 350 Arlington and Mary Ojala, 947 Ann street, both of Birmingham, have completed the 11th annual Youth Music course at Michigan State university.

Highlights of the three week session was an outdoor concert by the various musical groups in the MSU band shell. Other events included faculty and student recitals and a student performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's operatic "Trial by Jury."

last week to her home on Faculty Row, Bloomfield Hills. For the remainder of the summer she'll be busily engaged in assisting her husband with the direction of the Cranbrook summer theatre school.

Karen Reed is Baptized

Little Karen Melissa Reed was the center of attention Sunday when friends and relatives of her parents, the Timothy S. Reeds, gathered for a baptismal party. God-parents for the baptism in St. James Episcopal church were Mrs. Reed's sister, Nancy Martin of Mundelein, Ill., and Mr. Reed's sister, Margaret Reed, and her fiancé, Richard L. Moran.

Scene of the party was the home of the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tod Reed of Wibleton drive, where the Timothy Reeds are making their home for the summer.

Family Reunion

Forty-eight of the 152 descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Victor N. Denison gathered at Bloomer state park recently for a family reunion. Attending from Birmingham were the Edgar Parks and Albert G. Sivo families. The Denison family reunions have been held for 51 years.
