MR. AND MRS. DONALD E. EVANS

Couple Wed Saturday In Candlelight Rites

A double-ring candlelight ceremony Saturday united in marriage Dorothy Schmidt and Donald E. Evans at 7 p.m. in the Redeemer Lutheran church. The Rev. Theodore Wugzger officiated.

Dorothy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schmidt, 1188 Davis, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Evans, 195 Southlawn, all of Birmingham.

The bride wore a colonial floor length dress of chantilly lace and French tulle over heavy slipper satin. The full skirt had alternate layers of lace and tulle ruffles from the bodice to the floor. Her coronet headpiece of pearl and sequins held in place her floor length French tulle veil with appliqued flowers to match the lace of her dress. She carried an orchid and white carnations on a white satin Bible.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. John Issuit of Huntington Woods and Sally Rehner of Pontiac, wore identical dresses in pink and carried blue carnations.

Arthur Clark of Birmingham was best man. Seating the guests were Paul Ayres and Roy Auiph.

MOTHER of the bride wore a ballroom length dress of charcoal gray silk organza with a matching duster. She had pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Evans chose a teal blue sheath silk organza dress with white accessories. Her corsage was yellow carnations.

Out of town guests came from Missouri and Ontario. The newlyweds will make their home in Clawson.

Security is a Shaggy Dog When You're Young

Too bad we have to grow up. But we do. And the things we call security change. To some it's a thousand shares of AT&T. To others it's a little white house on the hill. Whatever it is, the only way is planned, regular saving.
