Bruce Booth Family Busy With Summer Time Plans

July has become a busy month for the Bruce Booth family of Park Lane court. Recent houseguests were the John J. Hammels of Sarasota, Fla., former residents. Mrs. Hammel is a sister of Mr. Booth and is an accomplished artist. Peggy Booth is now in Fontainebleau, France, where she will study painting at the Fontainebleau Castle this summer. The French government has set aside the famous old castle for American artists. Peg is located 60 miles from Paris.
The Booths' son, Dick, a student of University of Detroit, is presently spending six weeks with the ROTC at Fort Bragg, N. C.
Don, the Booths' youngest son, is accompanying his mother and father to Shore Hill, N. J., for 10 days, where they will be visiting relatives.

The John Wolfs of Juniper court have just returned after two weeks out west. Their trip included a few days in San Francisco, Calif., where they visited their son, Parker, who and his wife, Parker will be returning home this summer after four years in the Navy.
The Wolfs took a boat to Vancouver and then on through the Inland Water Ways, Banff, Canada, another stop on their way home.

Another family westward bound are the Benjamin Brewsters of Brookdale. Their plans include a flight to San Francisco, and then to Vancouver and Victoria, during the month of August.
Their daughter Betsy left recently for New York where she had a position waiting for her as a secretary with an insurance firm. Another daughter, Alison, is planning a trip to Boston in September, where she plans to locate.

Friends from Tucson, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bushy, former Detroiters, enjoyed an evening out with the Robert Kloos of Lanegan drive recently. Dinner at the Harmony club was on the agenda before viewing "Tea House of the August Moon" at the Shubert. Dinner at the Shubert Cadillac by the foursome completed the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Scheiter are newcomers to Manderford road, formerly of Dearborn. Mr. Scheiter is affiliated with General Motors Tech Center and is a member of the Alpha Gamma Upsilon in Flint, Mich. Among their sports interests are fishing, golf and gardening.

The day after the Scheiters moved into their new home they left on vacation. Mr. Scheiter left for La Cruz, Mexico, where he did some deep sea fishing, catching a black marlin and a dolphin. The dolphin is being mounted and will find a spot in their new home. Mrs. Scheiter enjoyed a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Eilers in Worthington, Minn.

A little newcomer, Susan Lee, arrived at the Floyd Warster home on Bolingbroke last month, weighing 8 lbs. 7 oz. The Warsters have three other children, Stephanie, Karen and Floyd.

Has House Guest From Beverly Hills

Her first trip to Birmingham in 18 years, Mrs. Lillian Lusher of Beverly Hills, Calif., is a house guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lorraine Hastreiter of Hanna street.

Among those already entertaining for her were Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Matthews of Apple Lane, Bloomfield Hills, who hosted a dinner party Saturday night, and Mrs. Martin Rice, who entertained at her Lake Park home Wednesday at a luncheon.
