

SENSE OF HUMOR

Humor for itself alone,
 Magic to perceive the need;
 What the pessimist lacks the most,
 I would use to intercede.
 Laughter with a sound so gay,
 Power of suggestion be;
 What the somber never knew,
 I would choose for company.
 Dull the mind that cannot jest...
 Fools the slaves of self-dress;
 What the humorist reflects,
 I would match with to possess.
 Fantasy that lifts the heart,
 Antidote for those who grieve;
 What a sense of humor does,
 I would seek through life to weave.

ROSES

Roses blooming everywhere,
 Spreading fragrance on the air,
 Lowly home or mansion grand,
 Make no difference in the brand.
 Red and Pink, or lovely white,
 They are beauty to the sight.
 How does this dainty unfold
 Bringing joy to young and old?
 The grandeur of this charming flower
 Blooming in wilds, or sheltered bower,
 Wonders nature's never cease,
 As we view the rose, her masterpiece.
