Local Girl Scouts, Troop 360 Enroute to Nation's Capitol

Mrs. Kenneth Quick of Inveray drive and Mrs. Julian Ofenstein of Putnam drive each drove a carload of girl scouts to Washington, D. C., Tuesday, on a trip sponsored by the southern Oakland county girl scout council.

Five girls of Walnut Lake troop 360 were in the group — Estella Quick, Joan Trousdale, Eileen Yingling, Sandy Correll and Jewell Ofenstein and were joined by four others from other Oakland county troops.

On the drive, which will take them over the Ohio and Pennsylvania turnpikes, the girls will stay overnight both going and returning at the cottage of the John Smiths of Westwood drive. This is a mountain retreat at Laurel Mountain, near Somerset, Pa.

At their destination, they will be living in a tent unit at Rockwood, the national girl scout camping headquarters, 15 miles from Washington.

Together with their plans to see Gettysburg, Md., and Mt. Vernon, they have been invited to be guests of a group of married scouts on a guided tour of the U.S.

Kenneth and Gary Kasco Build Race Midget Autos

Kenneth Kasco, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kasco of West Lincoln drive, was presented Sunday, July 1 with a gold plated trophy, the "Wolverine Quarter Midget". Kenneth won third place position in the midget auto race.

Gary Kasco, 12, also has his own car of his own and is in the 12-15 age group. The boys, as with all boys who participate in the race, build their own race cars and have to qualify in regulation trials at the beginning of the season.

The Kasco boys have raced at Motor City and have been seen on television. A point system is used throughout the year and in October the awards are given out.

This is the brothers' first year with cars and they race every Sunday at the Wolverine Track near Oakwood and 13 mile road, in Royal Oak.

Nautilus flags were flying proudly below the stars and stripes at the West Lincoln home of Mrs. Maud Dearborn Pratt, W. Dearborn Pratt, Mrs. Pratt's son, welcomed members of the Detroit Yacht Club's entertainment committee and their wives. Thirty-seven guests gathered "up on the hill" to chat and to have a picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reason and children, Christy and baby Pam, took over Mr. Reason's parents' Mich. for ten days. Friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Galsworthy, joined them for a long weekend with their children Mary and Tom.

The families enjoyed the swimming and sunning together. The group-trips played golf, also practiced putting on the 9 hole putting green, right on the grounds and did some shopping in Petoskey.

Vacationing at Cocoa Beach and Miami Beach for three weeks were the Warren P. Gabels, Oak Hills drive, and their daughters, For Lynda and Donna. Their first trip south, the drive thru the Smokies and seeing the Cypress Gardens were the most exciting adventures of the trip. They did

CHARMING, CUSTOM-BUILT COLONIAL

Ideally situated on a 100 by 125 foot lot on a quiet street. You'll love the privacy of the landscaped, tree lined garden.

There are three bedrooms and 1 1/2 baths; large living room with a fireplace. It has a dining room and a dinette area in the kitchen. And it's all newly decorated.

A 25-foot recreation room makes the basement especially attractive and there is a nicely screened porch, too.

We've loved it, but have to move to another city out of the state.
