

DUCK—DUCK—GOOSE! is one of the most popular games played by the children who attend the Birmingham summer recreation program at the Adams playground. Crafts, story telling and athletics are other parts of the program for the neighborhood children. Supervising the activities are co-directors, Linda Miller and Janie Delahanty. The young ladies report a well-attended and enjoyable season with many of the boys and girls making some handsome presents for their parents and friends.

Farm Teams Close Out With Sparkling Play

With a string of eight wins and no defeats, the Rangers of the Federal league farm team meet the second place Wings at Torry field for the last game of the season.

In an interview with Starry Pearn, manager, and W. G. Watt, first base coach, they were asked to what they attributed the success of the Rangers. Watt said, "Just a well balanced team with a nucleus of T-ball graduates from last year." They hesitated to name any particular outstanding players because each boy does the job assigned to him very efficiently. In the hitting department two 12-year-olds, Bob Graham, shortstop, and Bob Simanick, catcher, are the power hitters.

TWO 9-YEAR-OLDS: Ray Walker in right field and Pat Cleary at first base, are consistently feeling a high caliber game. Bill Watters, 11-year-old, and Roy Johnson and Bruce Pearn, both 10-year-olds, have carried the pitching load for the season. Pearn was very high with his praise for T-ball as a basis for a boy to begin Little League ball as he has a chance to learn fielding and base running know how without the pressure of trying to learn to hit quickly at the same time.

THE EAGLES under Manager Pete Case have clinched the championship of the American League Farm Teams. The outstanding performance last week was by Walt Riley, first baseman of the Eagles, who hit two home runs with the bases loaded against the Packers, but in a losing cause. The Flyers and Packers are battling for undisputed possession of second place in the standings, and the teams will give their all in the last game of the season this week. Selection of Players for the All-Star play-off will be made Friday, July 20. The American League drew a bye for the first game.

WEATHER PERMITTING, the Federal League Team vs. the National League Team will meet Wednesday, July 25, and the winners will represent their league in the All-Star game.
