

Families Take Part in Country Festival

Many Birmingham families are planning to spend an afternoon in the country Saturday meeting with old friends and neighbors at the Country festival at St. Mary's-in-the-Hills.

Among those who have already made plans to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bergeson, 10415 Birchwood and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kott of Park street.

Mrs. Howard Hite's guests will include Mr. and Mrs. William S. Todd of Bruyn Lane, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ricketman, 515 Tooting Lane and Mr. and Mrs. George Limp, 1051 Covington, all of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. William Douthorne of Spring Arbor drive, Southfield.

SO THEY CAN get in on Saturday's fun, neighbor children of the Bernard Zims, 1729 Dorchester, have been practicing archery and golf in their back yard this week. Roddy Evans, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Evans, 1763 Dorchester, is trying his tactics with an oversized bow and arrow—using the Zims' wood-ed area for the target. Practicing golf have been Cynthia Calkins, Barbara Evans, Tom Patterson and Tom Nothoff.

BIRMINGHAM men and women will staff the bazaar tables, treasure chest, white elephant booth, tea table and games of skill. Mrs. Zinn will be at the tea table.

Among others present will be presidents of Oakland County women's auxiliaries active in Episcopal work, who will be the guests of Mrs. Arthur Hodges, president of the Lake Angeles Guild. Mrs. Colin Campbell, 655 Lakeside road, Birmingham, president of the women's auxiliary of the Oakland Convocation of the Michigan Diocese of the Episcopal church, will attend with Mrs. William Bones, 5196 Adams road, from St. James auxiliary, and Mrs. A. M. McGee, 1124 Covington road, from Christ Church Cranbrook.

THEY'LL ALL GET A CHANCE at the game—but the usual question, who's first? Tom Patterson wins for first try while Rebecca Evans, Tom Patterson and Tom Nothoff cast watchful eyes.

IT'S A MANSIZED JOB—but to four-year old Roddy Evans, it's only part of the fun he's going to have Saturday at the country festival. He is the son of the Robert J. Evanses, 1763 Dorchester.

TEA ON THE FRONT steps accompanies discussion of plans for St. Mary's-in-the-Hills' country festival. Mrs. Howard Hite (left) and Mrs. James Fuson, co-chairmen of children's games and amusements, complete arrangements at the Lake Angeles home of Mrs. Alton Bentser, who is also a member of the festival committee. The festival is scheduled for Saturday from 4 p.m. on at the church on Jocelyn road.
