

September 8th Bride In a Whirl of Parties

Susan J. Spencer and Lt. Donald L. Williams have set their altar date for September 8 in St. James Episcopal church, Birmingham. After the evening rites, Susan's parents, the James H. Spencers of Shirley drive, Birmingham, will host a reception in Pine Lake country club.

The bride-elect has asked her sister, Jean, to be maid of honor and bridesmaids are to be Marilyn Benson of Fairview avenue, Heiter Lewis of Lakeview avenue and Beverly Koch of Walnut Lake. Donald, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Williams of Detroit, will have Ronald Scott of Beverly Hills as his right-hand man. Seating guests will be Hugh Betts, George Bitson and G. Richard Krieger of Detroit.

Susan's grandmother, Mrs. D. E. Spencer of Townsend street entertained the couple and several of their friends at a dinner party as the first in the pre-nuptial parties. Co-hostess for a luncheon and kitchen shower were Mrs. Curtis C. Later and Mrs. Stanley H. Burton, in the Burton home on Givens.

Relatives of the prospective bride and groom were invited to the Spencers' home for cocktails and buffet supper last month and Mrs. A. E. St. Amour of Huntington Woods gave a shower and buffet supper for their young friends.

Devon Golden was the scene of a luncheon and bedroom bathroom shower with Mrs. Elmer W. Shaver of Lathrop town hip as hostess.
