

Life of sorrow and misery is to deny the pattern of God's universal goodness. With in each of us is the divine power to rise above seeming problems, obstacles... but this is done only through co-work with God.

Teenage Cartoonist and Writer Publish Own Comic Books

Mono Mouse Cartoon Is Local Success

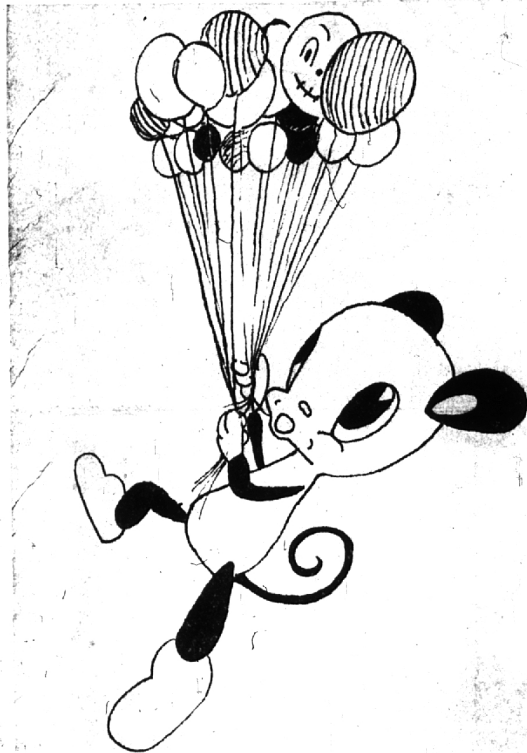

Birmingham has a first rate cartoonist in the person of Larry Robertson, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robertson of 1152 Lakeside drive.

Larry, a seventh grader at Holy Name school, has been interested in drawing since an early age, and is the creator of Mono Mouse, a character similar to Walt Disney's Mickey Mouse.

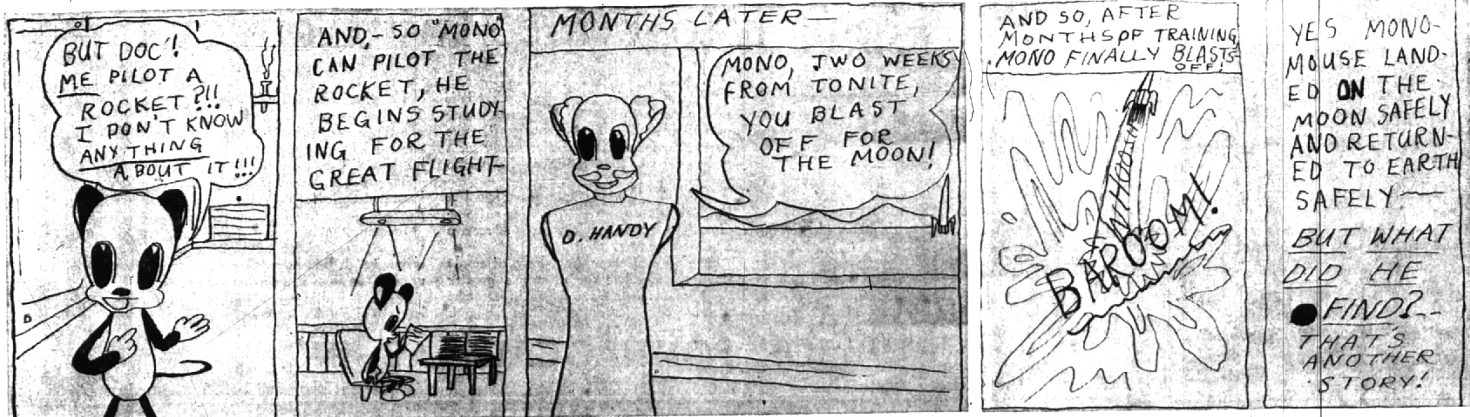

Last fall Larry teamed with Paul Kuebler, Jr., 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kuebler of 588 Baldwin.

Paul owned the mimeographing machinery and did some of the writing for three issues of comic books put out and sold in limited edition form by the boys during the past few months, while Larry did the cartooning, using his favorite character, Mono Mouse in the role of the hero.

CARTOONIST Larry Robertson (left) discusses one of three comic books published by he and Paul Kuebler Jr. for neighborhood distribution.

Mono Mouse

T
H
E
E
N
D