

Valley Woods
 Jean Kittle MI 6-1766 Marge Deuel MI 6-4376

Annual Family Reunion Held At Kenneth Kittle Residence

An annual family reunion at the Ken Kittles of Westlady took place Saturday evening. A barbecue supper was served to 30 guests, followed by home movies showing holidays and birthdays spent in each family during the past year.

Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. A. Kirk, Sr., welcomed 12 grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chappell and Miss Edith McLeod of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pippert of Grosse Pointe joined the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison of Breesewood court combined a five-day business and pleasure trip to Atlantic City. The Harrisons then went on to Georgetown, Md. for a visit with friends and before coming home, they stopped off for sight-seeing in Washington D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fick of West 11 Mile road announce the arrival at Providence hospital of a daughter, 7 lbs. 7 oz. Jim Jack and Jeanne are waiting at home for mother and their baby sister.

After the windsup of the Little League season Wednesday evening Buzz Seubner invited his team, the Baltimore Orioles back to his home for a hot dog roast.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell Seubner of Helvina trail entertained the team, their parents and team managers Lou Clark and Bob Bacon. After supper, provided by team mothers, the Baltimore Orioles presented a trophy to the managers with the team name engraved on it. The evening was concluded by a marshmallow roast around the fire.

SOUTH BERKSHIRES
 Mrs. George Williams of Mariemore drew entertained at a card party and luncheon for 28 members of the Queen of Angels circle of the Birmingham Daughters of Isabella. Tables were decorated with centerpieces of garden flowers and table prizes were awarded.

Newcomers to Woodhaven lane are Mr. and Mrs. Roger Parish and children Jack, 18, David, 16, and Ann, 14, formerly of Rosedale Park. Mr. Parish is physics instructor at Coohey high school, received his Bachelor degree at Michigan State normal, Ypsilanti and

SQUARE DANCING
 Fall activities are getting an early start in the area. Because of the necessity in obtaining a caller for square dancing in advance of the season, the Women's Group are calling on all those interested in joining such a class.

A beginners' troupe will meet once a month on a Friday evening and will be limited to 28 couples. The course will run from October until January and the charge will be $8 per couple. Mrs. Fred Nicholson or Mrs. Charles Shull are his Master's at Wayne university. Mrs. Parish, a graduate of Michigan state normal, operates the Laing doll hospital at Grand and Grand River. Mr. Parish's hobby is electronics and he is preparing to assemble a complete hi-fi. Son Jack is a sophomore at Michigan State.

The Parish family was entertained last week at a steak roast given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul McGarity of Woodhaven lane.

Last week Harriet and John Seerest and son Paul, 11 months, moved into their new home on Leemore drive. Mrs. Seerest is manager of body and estimate for the Ford division. He is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan and Harvard Business school and a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Mrs. Seerest graduated from Smith college, North Hampton, Mass., and has been active with the Ann Arbor League of Women Voters.

Strictly a stag affair—20 men from the accounting division at General Motors gathered for their annual steak roast and pot-luck supper at the Robert Johnson home on 13-Mile road. The afternoon was spent pitching horseshoes and playing cards.

Back from a 7,000 mile western trip are Roman and Salina Grubba and son Bruce of Vernon drive. They toured Yellowstone Park, and sightseeing around Mt. Rushmore, South Dakota, and at Crater Lake, Ore., were surprised to find 30 feet of snow.

On the return trip they stopped in Salt Lake City and Reno, Nev., and visited Mrs. Grubba's sister, Sister Mary Adrian at Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind.

The James Thompsons of Stellmar drive and daughters Denise and Marlene returned last week from an extended trip into Canada. After visiting in Montreal, they went sightseeing around Quebec and St. Anne de Beaupre shrine.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Frazer of Vernon drive, with their children Donald Jr., Rayme, James and Edward spent a week at Old Trail Inn, Harbor Springs. They were surprised to see so many folks from Birmingham.

The Upton Brannacks of Thirteen mile road recently entertained at a smorgasbord and cocktail party for 18 guests in honor of Mrs. Brannack's sister, brother-in-law and daughter of Miami, Fla.

LATHRUP Election commissioners are City Clerk Beth Cole, City Auditor Everett F. Hayes, and Councilman Frederick O. Johnson.

Walnut Lake Area
 ELIZABETH BUNNELL, MA 6-3444

R. Tyler Perkins Entertain Alumni from Martha Cook

Alumni from the Martha Cook dormitory at the University of Michigan, gathered in the Birmingham area the weekend of July 14-15 for happy reminiscence. Together with their husbands and children, they were billeted in the homes of different members of the alumni association, and took their meals at the R. Tyler Perkins home on South Clunbury road.

Staying at the Perkins home for a ten day visit. Mrs. Gordon Pennington, Jr., formerly of Birmingham and now a resident of Orono, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith of Midland. Mrs. Smith taught in the Birmingham schools before moving to Minniette. Sandra Perkins celebrated her third birthday in July with a luncheon at which her mother invited Christie Worth, Bobbie Rungburg and his cousins, Sue and Mary Daniel, visiting from Indiana, and Karen Middleton.

Mrs. George A. Brundrett of East Dacotah road entertained at a bridge luncheon July 15 honoring Mrs. Paul Osterling of Milwaukee, formerly of Auburn drive, East Beverly. Present for the gay reunion were Mrs. Charles Brindle, Mrs. Howard Brewer, Mrs. Clinton Newman, Mrs. Robert McCartney, Mrs. Robert Stapleton, Mrs. Jane Clark and Mrs. Carol Swille.

At other tables were Mrs. Adolph Neime, Mrs. Harold Stoll, Mrs. Edward Anderson, Mrs. Richard Gufford, Mrs. Robert Moss and Mrs. Donald Henrick.

Juanita Ferrill entertained Sunday afternoon at a personal and miscellaneous reading shower in honor of Barbara Stolarewicz whose marriage to Tom Trescott will be held on August 18. Twenty-eight girls and the seven bridesmaids, of which Juanita is one, gathered for the surprise.

Since they had not assembled for over a year, the girls had a lot to chatter about before and between the shower games. Juanita is the daughter of the Thomas Ferrills of South Clunbury road.

The David Youngdahls of Bloomfield Farms entertained last week in honor of Lieut. and Mrs. Richard Shaw of Harlingen, Texas. Other guests were Mrs. C. F. Walker, Mrs. J. E. Walker, Mrs. Arthur Raymond Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dressel, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson and Mr. R. Rice of San Diego, Cal.

Cocktails were served under the huge pink umbrella on the terrace which is surrounded with beautiful beds of carefully tended pink and white flowers. The group moved indoors for the dinner following.

Jon Byers, son of the John F. Byers of West Dacotah road, has returned home from the First Presbyterian church camp in Ligonier, Pa., where he spent several weeks. This was Jon's eighth consecutive year at the Ligonier camp.

The Richard Hintermeisters are welcoming home son Richard today from a month of fun at Camp Nissokone in Orono. The Hintermeisters are planning a family vacation at Northport, on Grand Traverse Bay.

The Noel Beckners have found their home on Cove Lane, which has grounds running to the lakefront, such a pleasant summer spot that they are not planning to leave on a vacation, but are doing a great deal of entertaining here. Their recent recent houseguests were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Raphael of Chicago, who with their children, Lisa and Phillip, were here

Woman's Club Holds Picnic At Sub 2 Beach

WALNUT LAKE—Members of the Walnut Lake Women's club and their families gathered last week for a picnic and potluck dinner at the Sub 2 beach picnic grounds. Together with the tempting food, games kept youngsters and adults occupied and happy.

Mothers vied with dads in a relay, unwrapping small caramels with hands encased in heavy canvas gloves and won hands down. In the wheelbarrow race, dads crawled painfully along, upheld by their small fry in the rear. Two teams of young people competed in a contest wherein the weakest string backwards, looking into a mirror held over their shoulders for guidance in following the straight line.

All children were engaged throughout the evening in a guessing contest involving the number of beans which they were handed on arrival. Following dinner, Bud Noble, son of club president Mrs. Mason Noble, led the crowd in a songfest, which lasted 'til dark. The club thanks beach association officers for use of the area for the occasion.

Faces Examination On Assault Count
SOUTHFIELD—Mervin P. Willman, 40, of 27521 Northwestern, faces examination of a felonious assault charge filed by his wife, Betty, 38.

Justice Edward A. Elsarrell entered a plea of not guilty for Willman, when Willman was undecided on his plea.

According to Elsarrell, Willman, who had an "arsenal" of guns and ammunition, threatened first his son and then his wife with a .45 caliber revolver Saturday following a family argument.

Bond was set at $3,000.

IN HEART OF BLOOMFIELD HILLS

HILLTOP SITE
 An older house with charm that has been tastefully remodeled. Five spacious bedrooms. Two bathrooms. The most up-to-date kitchen available. Bright and cheerful with plenty of space. Complete new heating system, wiring and plumbing. Dining room, living room and den are much larger than anything built today. Dark room in basement.

IMMEDIATE POSSESSION SEE IT TODAY! $50,000.

WALSH, JAMES & WASEY CO.
 Realtors since 1918

431 5. Woodward Ave. Birmingham Midwest 4-6500 Detroit phone JO 4-6033

QUALITY HAS NO PEER!

On an attractive street in West Beverly, this home is well landscaped and complete in every detail.

Delightful living room with a marble fireplace, the large dining area opens to restful jalousied porch.
 3 light and airy bedrooms, one paneled and suitable for a den.
 Sunlit kitchen with built-in dishwasher, disposal, and a cheery breakfast space. The basement is tiled and has a fireplace.

Fine and friendly, priced to sell! $31,500.00.

HOME COLUMN

LOADS OF ROOM
 for the children and you! 4 spacious bedrooms, 2 1/2 tiled baths. Huge living room plus den and full dining room. Kitchen has all the built-ins. CALL NOW! $31,500.00

WING LAKE
 view from the delightful living room. 3 bedrooms, separate dining room, large kitchen and restful summer porch. Hobby shop and attached 2 car garage. LAKE PRIVILEGES! $31,500.00

NEAT AS A PIN!
 See this 3 bedroom brick ranch near school and commuter. Large living room, good eating space in kitchen. Full basement, carpeting, well landscaped. LOOK! $17,950.00

SEE THIS!
 Roomy brick ranch, 3 large bedrooms, 2 tile baths. Cherry kitchen with breakfast space. Cozy den. Attached 2 car garage and full basement. WONT LAST LONG AT $28,500.00

HALL & YOUNG inc.
 West Maple at Telegraph Open Till 9 P.M. B'ham: MI 6-2700 Del: JO 6-7900

300 ACRES OF LAWN

..... AND YOUR NEIGHBOR CUTS IT!

Overlooking Country Club Fairways

Birmingham schools . . . city water and services . . . low taxes

WOMAN'S CLUB Holds Picnic AT Sub 2 Beach

WALNUT LAKE—Members of the Walnut Lake Women's club and their families gathered last week for a picnic and potluck dinner at the Sub 2 beach picnic grounds. Together with the tempting food, games kept youngsters and adults occupied and happy.

Mothers vied with dads in a relay, unwrapping small caramels with hands encased in heavy canvas gloves and won hands down. In the wheelbarrow race, dads crawled painfully along, upheld by their small fry in the rear. Two teams of young people competed in a contest wherein the weakest string backwards, looking into a mirror held over their shoulders for guidance in following the straight line.

All children were engaged throughout the evening in a guessing contest involving the number of beans which they were handed on arrival. Following dinner, Bud Noble, son of club president Mrs. Mason Noble, led the crowd in a songfest, which lasted 'til dark. The club thanks beach association officers for use of the area for the occasion.

Faces Examination On Assault Count
SOUTHFIELD—Mervin P. Willman, 40, of 27521 Northwestern, faces examination of a felonious assault charge filed by his wife, Betty, 38.

Justice Edward A. Elsarrell entered a plea of not guilty for Willman, when Willman was undecided on his plea.

According to Elsarrell, Willman, who had an "arsenal" of guns and ammunition, threatened first his son and then his wife with a .45 caliber revolver Saturday following a family argument.

Bond was set at $3,000.

MAX BROOCK INC.
 300 S. Woodward Ave. MI 4-6700
 Realtor Specialists for 61 Years' Birmingham, Mich. JO 4-6700