July Is 'Happy Birthday' Month for Area Children

"Happy Birthday" is in order for many area youngsters this week as there seem to be more July birthdays than any other month.

Sandy Sarnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Sarnes, Wing Lake road, celebrated her July 28 birthday early as she will be in camp on the date. Her guest list was necessarily small as she took the family car to Metropolitan Beach where they enjoyed skating, swimming and a picnic and the cruiser trip back.

Her guests were Pam and Lynn Walker of Wing Lake road, Rick Fairchild of Worlington, Chuck West of Oakland drive and her sister Carol.

Standa and her sister Carol and Pam and Lynn Walker left today for a month's camp at Chipewau Ranch on the Chipewau river at Westman, Mich.

Overnight guests helped Mary Pew, of Wing Lake road, celebrate her seventh birthday, July 19. Linda Beukema of Foxcroft and Mary Ann, Holly Garlick, Wing Lake road, were present for the family birthday dinner and cake and spent the night with Mary.

Mary Brainerd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brainerd, Worlington road, had a party for her July 29 birthday, inviting Holly Garlick, Joan Carter, Susan Fraser and Mary McKee. The girls had a hamburger yard barbecue followed by games and prizes.

Tam Harting, six, July 24 and celebrated with an outdoor picnic lunch topped off with his favorite, a chocolate birthday cake. Tam is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harting, Woodland Park. His guests were Andy and Roy Chandler, Tommy and Ricky Stanford, Peter and Jacque Dege and his brothers, Gary and Richard.

When Cheryl Jo Kolly, Wing Lake road, celebrates her twelfth birthday this Saturday, her friends Arlene Sadot of Detroit will come for the family birthday dinner and cake as Cheryl's house guest for the remainder of the week.

Explorer Scout John Mitchell Flies to Northern Fishing Site

In recognition of outstanding scouting activities, Jack Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell of Kinross, together with eight other explorer scouts from district one will be the guests of C. E. Wilson at his cabin in northern Michigan.

The boys will travel by car to St. Ignace and then by private plane to the Scouting site. The boys are planning many hours of fishing along with other outdoor activities.

Barbara Bailey of Larchette recently entertained a house guest, Lynn Crosby of Jackson. During Lynn's visit, Barbara gave a luncheon and splash party at Mendocino Brook country club in her guest's honor. Present for the party were Jeanne Mauser, Lynn Vogel, Beverly Byrne, Joyce McCracken, Nancy Carter and Pam Jones.

Justine Olive of Lake Orion, close friend of Nancy Brown of Bedford, was a recent house guest another Alton college friend, entertained at a luncheon party in Miss Olive's home in Royal Oak during the visit. The girls also enjoyed shopping and lunching at Devon Gables.

This week Mrs. Brown will entertain Tom K. Burg of Niagara Falls, N. Y. as her house guest.

Making a Movie Can Be Formula For Beating Summer Doldrums

Want a formula for beating the summer doldrums? Two Lathrup lovelies have come up with an answer... make a movie! Of course it helps to be a ballerina, as Carol Fleming and Linda Taggart certainly are.

Filed by the Wayne State University, department of audio-visual education, the color movie presents the story of the making of a movie. He came directly to Detroit to assist in filming the first ballet.

The versatile Mr. Dollar returned just last week from Iran where he had been commissioned by the U. S. government to aid in forming the National Iranian Ballet.

Mrs. Frank Briesacher, West Maple, has been busy entertaining her bridge club lately. Saturday evening, the women of her evening club entertained their husbands in the Briesacher yard for cocktails and a steak dinner followed by bridge for the evening.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Danham, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Edna Surge and Mr. and Mrs. William Lorenson.

Mrs. Briesacher entertained her bridge club July 18 at cocktails, luncheon and bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peters, Thurber road, and their children spent the fourth of July and the following week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Russell Peters at their cottage at Oscego lake, their daughter Anne remained with her grandparents for a further vacation and returned home Monday.

Billy Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fuller, Worlington road, left for his grandparents' home in Ohio where they will visit relatives and attend the Woodfield Fair. They will return Sunday.

Lathrup residents can add to their list of new arrivals to greet the Don Hoogstra family of Rainbow circle on their return last weekend from a vacation at the Phil de Graaf lodge on Trout Lake. Generous daily rains brought the fish swarming to the bait, while six sunny hours allowed the family to pursue their hobby of rock collecting.

The area abounds in excellent agate and several interesting fossils and shell fungus were found during the search for all badge groups at Tabaquemon Falls provided a ray period to the visit.

GRAND WESTERN TOUR

The Elmer Craig family of Sunnyside have been back from a grand western tour just long enough to rest up and remember the details.

Leaving the village June 23, they headed for Rocky Mountain National Park where they enjoyed the horseback trails, thence to Colorado Springs and a visit with a long-time school friend of Pegg's, Mrs. Henry Rickard.

Salt Lake City and the Mormon Temple loomed next on the list. Pegg, an ardent golfer, boasts that in Canton gave Ethel a one day (each) by seeing Bryce Canyon, Zion and the Grand Canyon.

A brief visit in Las Vegas followed, then two days of ocean bathing near San Diego. Disneyland was thoroughly explored, with a stay at the Disneyland hotel and dips in the famous pool.

In Los Angeles, the Craigs visited with the family of Mrs. Craig's brother, and many old friends. Sequoia and Yosemite beckoned them northward, with a last stop of four days in San Francisco where Mrs. Craig renewed her friendship with Jeannette Deaver, former Girl Scout executive for Oakland County, and an acquaintance of many Lathrup residents.

Selling their car in the Bay City, the Craigs, son Douglas, and daughter Barbara, flew wearily and happily home.
