

Children Host Anniversary Fete

Approximately 100 relatives, friends and neighbors attended a surprise open house Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lowe, West Big Beaver road, Troy.

The occasion was the 25th wedding anniversary party of the Lowes given by their children, Dave and Pat.

Assisting Dave and Pat were Yvonne Haglund, Dave's fiancée, Mrs. Valdor Haglund, Chuck Jackson, Mrs. Russell Robertson and Mrs. Robert Utley, sister and maid of honor to Mrs. Lowe.

Cheryl Utley, niece to Mrs. Lowe, had charge of the guest book.

Guests were from Ann Arbor, Howell, Fowlerville, Detroit, Utica, Warren, Birmingham and Clawson.

MRS. GEORGE H. L. BURDICK, JR.

Local Man Claims Bride In Boulder, Colo., Rites

Mr. and Mrs. George H. L. Burdick of Henrietta street, Birmingham, were present June 22 when their son, George H. L. Burdick, Jr., married Nancy Sophia Middleton in Boulder, Colo.

The evening rites were performed by Dr. Ralph Evans in the Boulder Presbyterian church.

A DAUGHTER of Mrs. John T. Middleton and the late Mr. Middleton, the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Wallace V. Baker, of California. She was gowned in imported Italian silk and carried white roses and stephanotis.

Completing her ensemble was a heirloom veil of Belgian crocheted lace belonging to her grandmother. Matron of honor, Mrs. Ray Henry of Denver, wore pale pink crystal and carried bronze carnations. Pale blue crystal was worn by the bridesmaids, Lee Crews and Marjorie Stoops of Denver and Laura Middleton of Boulder. Nancy's niece, Louisa Manonida, served as flower girl.

Traveling from Birmingham for the wedding were best man William S. Gilbreath III and ushers Bruce Smith, Robert Woodruff and Henry H. Burdick II. James Katsell of Denver also ushered.

On Swimming Team

Judy Conrad, 8-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Conrad of Square Lake road, left Sunday for South Bend, Ind. She will be the guest of her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. St. John, formerly of Birmingham, and will take an active part in the South Bend Country club swimming matches.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

After a honeymoon in Wyoming, the newlyweds will make their home in Boulder.

While in Colorado, the senior Burdicks celebrated their 28th wedding anniversary June 20. On the 21st, they were hosts at the rehearsal dinner at Flagstaff House.
