MRS. HERBERT W. KIRBY

Newlywed Kirbys Make Home in Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Weldon Kirby are residing in Houston, Texas, after honeymooning in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. Their marriage was solemnized June 16 in First Presbyterian church, Birmingham. The bride is the former Joan Irving Helin.

Three hundred and fifty guests witnessed the double-ring evening rites read by Rev. W. Glen Harris. A garden reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Helin, on Cedar Hill drive, Bloomfield township. W. Va., and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Helin of Clarkburg, W. Va. Also among out of town guests was the groom's grandfather, Norville Weldon Kirby, of Kirby's Corner, Ont., Canada.

JOAN was gowned in white peau-de-faille designed with a square neckline, basque waist and Juliet sleeves. Her medieval head-dress was fashioned of Fonce De Leon lace and imported crystals from which fell a three tiered veil. Completing her ensemble were long white gloves, a bouquet of gardenias and a gold cross set with diamonds.

Patricia and Sandra Helin were their sister's maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively. They carried pink roses and dark blue delphinium with their turquoise point-de-spit frocks, which featured lace bustles, and their hats were of matching lace.

JOHN STEVEN Kirby was his brother's best man. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Kirby of Maryland avenue, Birmingham. Roger H. McIntyre of Dearborn, Garth Stanton and James Webber of Birmingham and Jesse Curtis of Mason seated guests.

Mrs. Helin received guests in front of an arched picture window overlooking the garden. She was gowned in pink pseudo-silk and the groom's mother selected pink lace. Baskets of pink and white geraniums, pink and white carnations and rose buds decorated the scene.

PRESENT for the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Helin of West Union, Joan Irving Helin became the bride of Herbert Weldon Kirby in an evening ceremony in First Presbyterian church Birmingham followed by a garden reception at the Helin home.

Shower Honors Alysanne Dove

Pre-nuptial events for bride-elect Alysanne Dove, daughter of the William E. Doves of Wallace street, Birmingham, got under way last week when Mrs. Everett Allen entertained at a bridge luncheon. Sixteen guests were present for the shower given in the Allen home on Wilmington avenue. A centerpiece of sweet peas provided decoration on the serving table.

Alysanne and her fiance, Spencer David J. Burkhardt, plan an August 25 wedding in First Methodist church, Birmingham. David, a son of Mrs. Harry L. Burkhardt of Park street and the late Mr. Burkhardt, is stationed in Germany.

BIRTHS

A son, Jeffrey Stephan, was born June 25 to MR. AND MRS. GERALD MAHRLE, 1921 Holland, Birmingham.
