Norma Jean Currin and Robert L. Kopf Wed in New Franklin Community Church

The marriage of Norman Jean Currin and Robert L. Kopf on June 23 in the new Franklin Community church was the first to be performed in the church which is open July 15 for worship services.

Rev. Robert Searls solemnized the double-ring rites in the presence of 200 guests. Following the late afternoon ceremony, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman G. Currin, were hosts at a reception in their home on Captains lane, Franklin.

THE GROOM is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Kopf of Wellington road, Franklin.

Norma chose, for her wedding day, an off the shoulder gown of white French lace over pink antique satin trimmed with a flourish of pleated white-nylon tulle at the hem.

A seed pearl crown secured her wavy length veil and a white orchid centered her bouquet of white roses.

The music carried spiky arrangements of white carnations and delphinium with their nylon dotted Swiss gossams. The frills of most of honor Peggy Littlefield of Orono, Me., was pale blue and those of the bridesmaid, Mrs. Ronald Arkils of Royal Oak and Darleen Kopf of Franklin, were pale pink.

CAROLYN Grace Currin was junior bridesmaid for her sister. A parland of yellow daisies circled her head and her dress was fashioned of white dotted Swiss over yellow.

Charles Smith of Birmingham, Morley Marvin of Royal Oak and Donald Fraser of Franklin seated guests. The bride's brother, Richard and William Currin, was junior usher and Jack Lane of East Lansing was best man.

Mothers of the couple pinned pink rose corsages to their gowns. Mrs. Currin selected a dress of pale blue satin and Mrs. Kopf's dress was pink and grey printed tulle.

AFTER a honeymoon in northern Canada, the newlyweds will reside in Franklin. Among guests were the groom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Edward J. Liko, of Detroit, and the bride's maternal grandmothers, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Heacock of Bloomfield Hills.

Court Enters Plea On Check Charge

A 27-year-old Beckley man, recently arrested by Birmingham police and charged with uttering and publishing, stood mute last week when arraigned before Oakland county circuit court Judge George B. Hartwick. A plea in the case of Lyman E. Holt was entered by the court. Trial date has not been set.

Birmingham police said Holt had cashed checks totaling $285 in local supermarkets.

CADET SECOND Lieutenant Jan R. Bergel, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Bergel, E. Hickory Grove, Bloomfield Hills, graduated from St. Thomas military academy in St. Paul, Minn., recently.

Jan is planning a Mexican vacation this summer. He will enroll at Michigan State university in the fall in the hotel management school.

4 B'ham Students Make Honor Rolls For College Work

Names of four Birmingham college students have been placed on the honor rolls of their schools this past year.

At Bradford junior college, Massachusetts, Jeanne Peider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Peider, 468 Berwyn, Birmingham, was named to the freshman high honors list.

Alma college's honor roll for the spring semester contained the names of Elizabeth McQueen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McQueen, 621 Henley, Birmingham, and John Carl Acton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Acton, 2705 Cattermole, Troy township.

Frederick K. Courville, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Courville, 25072 W. 12 Mile, Southfield township, was on the high scholarship list for the spring semester at Western Michigan college.

Openings Remain For Radio Theater

Several openings remain for Summar Radio Theater, sponsored by the Birmingham recreation board and supervised by Monzelle Clark.

Bloomfield Builder Shot While at Site Of Work Project

Melvin Beckner, 4114 Telegraph, Bloomfield Hills, was shot in the shoulder June 28 while standing in front of a construction project at the Unity Lutheran Church, 14301 Burt, Detroit, talking to a church member.

Beckner was taken to the Redford branch of the Receiving hospital where his condition is described as "good."

Arrested as a suspect in the shooting was Eli Cherevick, a 65-year-old recluse who lives in a shack in the rear of 14301 Trinity.

Releasing Cherevick on bond, police said they would try for a warrant for careless shooting of firearms when Beckner is released from the hospital.

Wins Study Award

Adele Toepfer, a former Birmingham resident, won a modern language prize for her achievement in study of French civilization and literature, at Scripps college, California, during commencement week.

Receives Degree

Ann Kaegi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Kaegi, 707 Wadlington, Bloomfield township, was in the June graduating class at Indiana University. She received the bachelor of science degree in education.
