Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey Are Busy New Residents

The new resident who feels that moving into his suburban home is, by itself, an undertaking, might consider Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey's program for the past month.

Beside making the change from their former home in Detroit to the one on Hills drive (the former Sheldrick house), they just became grandparents of a son born to their daughter, Mrs. Shirley Bastyan of Chicago.

Then, there was all the excitement over daughter Pat's graduation from the University of Michigan this semester; and now, there are the many plans and details to be taken care of for her August wedding.

A teen-ager, Ann, is the third and youngest daughter of this busy family. The Umphreys are members of the Pine Lake country club. Mrs. Umphrey likes gardening and, following a schedule like the above

Summer Plans Of Walnut Lake Teachers Revealed

WALNUT LAKE — School teachers have scattered for the summer, each full of plans for a busy personal life. Harriet Merritt will be spending her vacation at her parents' Lake Huron cottage.

Mrs. E. Johnson, first grade teacher, is going on a six week trip to California. She will spend the remainder of the summer at a cottage in northern Michigan, also on Lake Huron.

A wedding followed the close of school for Carl Hulstner who was married in her home town in the upper peninsula. Marion Matthews, second grade teacher, was also married, in a ceremony taking place in Redford. She will teach in the north woods. The Seamansville on Quanton road.

The D. R. Seamans' son and daughter-in-law, who graduated from coast from Maryland. This week, the group left for a few days' stay up in the north woods. The Seamansville on Quanton road.

George Kentis of Oak Hills asked Jimmy Aitken, Lauren court, up to his lodge on the Au Sable for a week's fishing. Pete an Hon and Bill Primm of Franklin went along, too.

The William Kelleys of Lone Pine Village took time out from their erriage board for a two-week visit to Boston.

Saturday, the Irvin Brothers six-year-old Leslie celebrated her birthday in the Brower home on Ranch Lane. Little friends who helped her celebrate were Martha Unruh, Debbie Broach, Greg Griffin, Danny Townsend and Jackie Hall.

The Canasta club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frank S. Day, Maple road. Mrs. Jane Nicol, Mrs. Ginny Payne and Mrs. Shirley Rayman were there.

Walnut Lake Area Visit Niagara Falls, Catch Rock Slide on Movie Film

Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps of Walnut Lake road took daughter Janis with them on a trip to Rochester, N. Y., to attend the International Sing sponsored by the Associated Male Chorus of America. At this event, in which Phelps took part, some 60 choruses from the northeastern part of the country were represented in the 1000 voices on stage.

On their way to Rochester, the Phelps stopped at Niagara Falls. Mr. Phelps was taking movies of Janis and Mrs. Phelps when the latest slide began. Switching his camera to the falls, he managed to get pictures of the thrilling and terrifying sight of falling rock which barred a powerhouse.

When they left the falls, the family went to Newark, N. Y. for a visit in Phelps' old home town. There they saw many old friends, and were honor guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and Dr. and Mrs. Dupla Reeves for dinner at the Newark country club. They also took in the Jackson Perkins rose festival, an annual event of the well-known Newark rose nursery.

The Phelps journeyed home from the Sing with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Monahan, stopping in Ontario at the Bonanza Park cottage of the Monahans for a pleasant break in the ride.

Enroute to and from Rochester, the Phelps enjoyed talking with New York and Ontario road hams over their mobile rig, call number WSHWA, "Hard Working Amateur." Young Nancy stayed at home, visiting with the Richard Williams family here and with her grandparents, Mrs. Oscar Schultz, in Detroit.

The Phelps held their annual regular party on June 21-22. Appearing the first evening were piano pupils of Mrs. Phelps—Jean Helmsberg, Susan Hart, and Smith, Janine Fockler, Linda Meyers, Jan Mortort and Doug Hamilton.

Also performing on Thursday were Dennis Alex, Bill Noch and Ruth Alex, who have studied with Mr. Phelps. On Friday evening, Mrs. Phelps' older students, Sue Simonson, Corinne Sarlund, Karen Overgard and Ann Solits were on the program.

MRS. BETTY RICHARDSON, third grade teacher, is living in Birmingham, having made the decision to desert teaching in favor of homemaking for the present.

Fourth grade teacher Virginia Pecha did not have her plans lined up when school ended. Miss Pecha lives in the Brasas with her parents. She has access to the lake at all times.

Mrs. Nancy Shannon, teacher of the split section for the fourth and fifth grades, will set up housekeeping at Vine Lake, having been the special section for the present.

Her husband will be going into service soon, and because of this, her future plans are uncertain.

Mrs. Anne Triff, fifth grade teacher, plans on spending a deal of time with her husband at their Walled Lake cottage.

MRS. ESTHER GOLLIHER is staying with her husband's parents in Murphysboro, Ill., while he attends a southern Illinois college. Mrs. Golliher will teach at the Torrey school next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schumm and Susie are spending July at their Indian Lake cottage near Manitowish. Upon his return, Mr. Schumm will open up the school office on August 1, and hours will be from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. during August.

AREA NEWCOMERS
Welcome to the Spencer Harrison family, formerly of Detroit, who live on West Maple at Dartmouth road. Both parents are associated with Chrysler corporation. A daughter, Mrs. Michael Finlay, with her baby Deborah Ann, is living at home with them while her husband, a member of the U. S. Air Force, is stationed at Selfridge Field.

The Harrisons also have two boys, an older son Jim, and George, 14, who has been attending parochial school in Detroit, but will transfer out here in the fall.

The John Payne family, moved to their new home on Bloomfield lane from St. Clair Shores. The Paynes have a small son who will be enrolled in the kindergarten of Walnut Lake school in September.

Payne is associated with the City of Glass Co., Detroit, and is a member of different organizations connected with his business. He was active in the Jay Cees of St. Clair Shores before moving.

The family has been busy entertaining many friends who have dropped in to see their contemporary home here, but with warm weather, expect to spend more time at the family cottage at Lakeand near Brighton.

Members of Brownie troop 612 upon hearing the school needed flowers, bought and planted a peony bed in the rear of the school. They are spreading the word around that donations of tulip bulbs to brighten the school grounds would also be welcomed.

The entire troop journeyed to the Detroit Zoological park for a day's outing. They took the train, saw the chimpanzee show and ate their nosebag lunches at picnic tables.

The girls managed to take in everything but the polar bears before the rains caught them unawares, leaving them in a dampened condition for the ride home. Chauffeurs for the troop were Dee Trzos, Mrs. Stanley Turner and Mrs. Mitchell Middleton.
