

YMCA Day Camp Announces Staff Of Six Counselors

George Ewing, youth work director of the Birmingham YMCA announced that six counselors will serve on the day camp staff this summer. Counselors who will take charge of the boys' groups are Dave Griffith, Bill Yegus, Russ

Richardson and Tom Hewitt. Cathy Bemis and Kay Fowler will take charge of the two girls groups. During the first seven weeks of the day camp season George Ewing will act as director. Edwin Kirbert will act as director during the last two weeks of the season. The day camp opens June 18 and closes Aug. 17. Information on the day camp may be obtained by phoning the Y.

★ Smile A Minute

Sally was a smart girl — too smart for her own good. Mother was afraid of the first seven weeks of the day camp season. "But, Mother," the girl protested, when the older woman chided her for being too bookish, "a man likes a woman who shows him she is clever."
"Oh, no," replied worldly-wise Mother, "a man likes a woman who shows him he is clever."

BARNUM JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

Ten of Barnum's male faculty members played last week against Edwain Kirbert will act as director during the last two weeks of the season. The day camp opens June 18 and closes Aug. 17. Information on the day camp may be obtained by phoning the Y.

Teachers participating were Burton Bronson, the band instructor; Robert Auer, shop instructor; Fred Gibson, coach; Robert Kutscher, orchestra director; Russell Hotchkiss, arithmetic teacher; Fred Radloff, assistant coach and science teacher; Fred Smith, social studies teacher; Malcolm Trindall, boys' counselor; Herbert Hengst, principal, and Wally Wasielewski, shop instructor.

Student players were Ernie Zaino, Mike Mills, Jay Madonna, Phil Isbell, Red Ruddy, Church Stubblefield, Bob Hawkins, Bud Butler, Bill Bobby, Jim Hanze and Larry Stuber.

Only home run of the game was by Mr. Radloff. Other runs were batted in.

Dick DuBois was the umpire and Miss Jane Ward was the scorekeeper.

Mrs. Jane Foster, the girls' gym coach, held a mile swim last week. Completing the mile were Judy Karnes, Emily Monor, Barbara Buck, Lyane Harck, Marion Ginnman, Carol Cole, Karen Bender and Marty Alligre.

Judy Karnes came in first, swimming the mile in 45 minutes.

Barnum eighth graders enjoyed their graduation dance last night in Barnum cafeteria.

Mrs. Kay Bronson, language arts teacher, was given a surprise baby shower by girls in section 7-7. Punch, cookies, and tea sandwiches were served at Patty Mason's house.

The girls' gym homeroom had a party last week. The girls brought food for a picnic at Nancy Madison's house, which followed a swim in Barnum pool. After the picnic they played soft ball and badminton.

Miss Dolores Gilbee's eighth grade sewing class put on a fashion show recently. The girls modeled the garments they had made.

A beige skirt and white blouse was shown by Sue Linton. Judy Palmer appeared in a rust colored middie. Jan McNaughton showed a red circular skirt and white terry-cloth beach robe.

Lynn Ivers wore a red skirt and beach robe. Nancy Louis modeled a sleeveless dress with gathered skirt. Rajette Reed showed a black skirt and attractive apron. Jolly Lanet appeared in a light blue princess style dress. Vicky Kreisell also modeled a princess style of blue and white print.

Ann Pearson showed a red skirt and tailored blouse. Jana Vaske appeared in black fitted shorts. Marlene Colburne modeled a pleated cotton skirt and blouse.

A brown print low-waisted dress was shown by Carol Schyler. Judy Bever wore a blue print skirt and white blouse. Betty Larson modeled a navy pleated skirt.

Life and Star Awards Presented At Court of Honor

Troop B-4, Adams school, held its court of honor Monday, June 11, climaxing an active year of scouting. Richard Heavens was presented a Life scout badge and James Parry received his Star badge.

Merit badges were earned by Bruce Minturn—machinery, electricity, life saving, public health and citizenship in the community; James Parry earned swimming and public health; Fred Anderson and Ted Mordant both qualified for scholarship.

Scoutmaster Charles Moore reports the troop earned blue badges of excellence for camping and scoutcraft at the recent district one Camporee.
