Cub Pack B-23 Holds Annual Picnic and Award Ceremony

Combined forces of cub pack B-23 and webelos dens of the Pembroke area, and their families had their annual picnic Saturday, June 9, at Bloomer State park, north of Rochester. The novel attraction of a pancake lunch drew approximately 75 people.

Besides all the pancakes and sausage each could consume, they witnessed an award presentation ceremony.

Receiving wolf badges were Gregory Holzwarth and Jeff Meyer; bear badges, Dale Barber, Garth Black, and Donald Kennedy; lion badges, David Fodd, David Killory and David Barber.

Webelos badges, highest award in cubbing, went to Roger Blandford, John Clark, John Greenwood, Michael Kitz, Alan Johnson, Peter Millington, James McDonald, Mickey Phelan, Douglas Rapp, Luigi Thum, Richard Sauerbrun, John Vander Roost, George Ward, and Scott Woodson.

There were 35 gold and silver arrow points in various ranks. Cubmaster Ronald Barber presented the awards.

Chairman for the last event of the season was Basil Sturman, assisted by Frank Barber, Henry Castle, and those in charge of games, Ben Robertson and Garth Hawley. Various contests and games were enjoyed after the presentation of awards.

Little Miss Wendy Sue Thompson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Thompson of 878 Graefield, Troyton Manor, was flower girl at the wedding of Sally Kimball and Bernard Mason. The ceremony took place Saturday morning at the Shrine of the Little Flower in Royal Oak. Wendy's dress and hat were coralflower blue and were identical to those of other bridal attendants' attire.

Mrs. Francis H. Kester, Jr. and son David, 10, arrived by plane Friday from their home in Tunkhannock, Pa. for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Shaffner of Graefield road. That afternoon, Mrs. Shaffner entertained 15 neighborhood boys and girls at a weenie roast in David's honor. Mrs. Kester expects to return to her home in about ten days, and David will remain for several weeks vacation with the Shaffners.

ST. JANE'S GUILD

The regular monthly meeting of St. Jane's Guild, held at the home of Mrs. Clyde Mulhern, Graefield road, Troyton Manor, final arrangements were made for the husbands' and wives' get-together, June 21 in the recreation room of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nanry, 925 Norwich. There will be buffet lunch served, refreshments and dancing. This affair will conclude this season's activities and the first meeting next September will be held in St. Ann's hall at Holy Name church, with bridge sessions after the regular business meeting. The date will be announced later.

Quite a bit of ingenuity and originality was shown, as well as a good display of local talent, in a variety show held last week in the recreation room of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Barnes, 1655 Witherbee road.

Daughter Betty Ann was mistress of ceremonies for a show of various dance acts and song specialties, enacted by her sister, Susan and several of her playmates and classmates, known as the "Second Grade Club."

Participating were Dee Durkee, Corliss McCutcheon, Sharon Minor and the Barnes sisters. At the end of the program, they promised the audience a puppet show for their next offering, to be held in the near future.

Marriage Announced

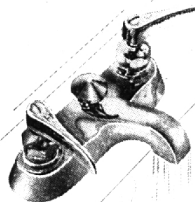

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Travis of Birwood road, Birmingham, announce the marriage of their daughter, Thelma May, to William Bartlett Ballard, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Ballard of Lake Worth, Florida. The ceremony took place in Folkston, Ga., and the couple are living in Lake Worth.
