

MRS. FORD R. CARTER, JR.

To Reside in Florida After Canadian Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Rodman Carter, Jr. will make their home in Del Ray Beach, Fla., after a honeymoon in northern Canada, at French River, Ont. They were married Saturday afternoon in a double-ring ceremony by Rev. William Marcus Johnson in Grasse Pointe Congregational church.

THE BRIDE, the former Susan Alles, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Russell Alles of Mark court, Bloomfield township, chose a gown of white lace and tulle for her marriage to the son of the senior Ford E. Carters of Lantana, Fla. Styled with a lace short-sleeved V-necked bodice, the bridal gown featured a full tulle skirt covered with lace medallions and ending in a chapel train.

Huler Whitlock of Rochester, Day Whitmore of Grand Rapids and Russell Alles, Jr., bride's brother, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Alles wore a gray lace over tulle and slash dress with black accessories and white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose blue lace over tulle, matching hat and pink rose bud corsage.

After the rites, a reception was given in the church parlors, followed by dinner in the Alles home for the wedding party, relatives and out-of-town guests.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

MAD OF HONOR, Janet Winkehan of Ann Arbor, was attired in white crystalite, fashioned with a beauteous veil. Her headband was pink with a tiny veil.

Wearing dresses, with aqua beauteous bows, of the same style as the honor maid wore the bridesmaids, Julie Mickel and Sylvia Hadley of Detroit, Jane Griffith of Battle Creek and Mary Jane Landerman of Glen Ellen, Ill.

Pink carnations made up the cascade bouquets of all the attendants.

Birmingham's Brightest, New SHOPPING CENTER OPENING SOON!

SOUTHFIELD ROAD at FOURTEEN MILE ROAD

The founding fathers of Birmingham would feel right at home in the newly developed shopping center at the corner of Southfield and 14 Mile rds.

The building is of Williamsburg-Colonial Design with brick exterior. Including the traditional cupola, topped by the symbolic weathervane, it gives one the feeling of being back in the "good old days" of the horse-drawn carriage. However, a surprise awaits those who enter the charming business establishments of the Beverly Hills Drug Store, The Country Market and the Page One Cleaners which occupy the building.

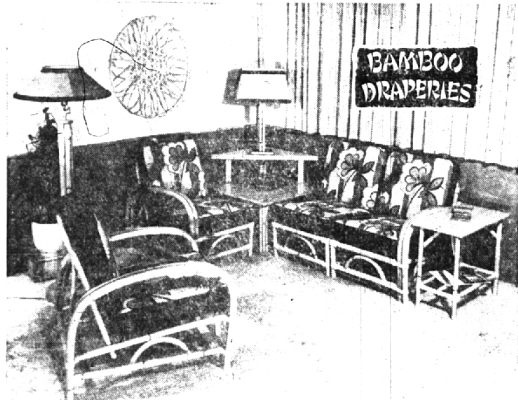

No effort or expense was spared to make each of the stores the finest in every detail. Fixtures are of the latest design and the most modern equipment has been installed. Customers may expect the finest of products dispensed with courtesy and promptness. Each firm is dedicated toward making the shopping center a pleasant place, not only to shop, but to meet your friends and pass the time of day with your neighbors.

Each store will be comfortably airconditioned and ample parking has been provided on both sides of the building. Beautiful landscaping will surround it as soon as the proposed improvements on Southfield rd. have been completed.

The architectural and engineering firm of Beneicks & Lorenz designed the new shopping center and it was built and developed by Albert Nelson, general contractor of residential and commercial properties.
