From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Just the Facts, Ma'am!

Having a red-hot crime wave in town, Specs McFaire and Buck Hanson were caught taking money out of parking meters—again. I was at Police Headquarters when a nice old lady rushed in to report them.
"It was dark but I saw their faces in the flashlight beam," she said breathlessly. "You can't trust anybody these days."
She put the word when Chief Benson explained that Specs and Buck are neither but subjects working nights after their regular working jobs. "Have to get 'em out of here," said Benson. "Third time they've been turned in!"
From where I sit, we ought to guard against accusing anyone of being "wrong" just because that's the way it looks to us. For instance, I've heard people talk against a neighbor because they didn't approve of his choice of beverage. They like tea, or something, while he preferred a glass of beer. Be sure you have a case before you lay down the law.

Double-Ring Ceremony Solemnized Saturday

Judith Ann Clark and James Preston Owens, Jr., were married Saturday in a double-ring ceremony in First Baptist church, Birmingham, with Dr. Emil Kontz officiating.

Parents of the couple are the Camerons, Clarks of Buckingham, Beverly Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Owens of Hanna street, Birmingham.

JUDY'S SISTER, Mrs. John G. Vickers of Detroit, was maid of honor and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Clark, and Virginia Lee Owens, groom's sister, were bridesmaids. A niece of the bride, Barbara Ann Vickers, was the flower girl.

The bride carried a white Bible adorned with a white orchid and gladiolus. Her hoop-skirted gown was fashioned of white chantilly lace over taffeta styled with small lace collar.

THE HONOR attendants were gowned in white embroidered organza over yellow taffeta. They wore matching picture hats and carried bouquets of yellow daisies. Guests were ushered by William Martin, Charles Heubert, Robert Clark and John Vickers. Jerry Mills served as best man.

A reception in the church parlors was followed by another in the Clark home. Mrs. Clark received in a blue lace street length dress. The groom's mother also chose lace in a rose beige shade. Out of town guests included the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Everett Wood of Miami Beach, Fla.

Home Reception After Whiteroft-McCane Rites

Arrangements of white flowers sprinkled with daisies decorated the patio of the Old Orchard drive home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne L. McCane for the reception, following the marriage of their daughter, Eleanor Darlene, to Frederick James Whiteroft. Music was provided by strolling musicians.

Veils and rings were exchanged at 4 p.m. Saturday, at Kirkens-Hills with the Rev. Harold DeWitt officiating. The newlyweds will make their home in Bloomfield Terrace.

For her honeymoon to Virginia, the new Mrs. Whiteroft donned a blue linen costume dress with white accessories. The newlyweds will make their home in Bloomfield Terrace.

The bride was gowned in silk organza with a floor length bouffant skirt. A scooped neckline appliqued with rose petal lace, scattered seed pearls and shirred sleeves accented the bodice. Her fingertip veil fell from a shell cap of matching rose petal lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of amzon-lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

MATRON of honor, Mrs. John O'Sullivan, wore a pale yellow Swiss baptiste gown with a scoop neckline appliqued with petals and a bouffant skirt. In her hair was a semi-circlet of daisies and she carried a cascading bouquet of daisies and ivy.

Attending as bridesmaids in identical frocks were Mrs. Jack Peterson, Mrs. Donald Ohmart, Marguerite Klein and Mrs. Donald Rogers. The son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Whiteroft, 1031 Knox, Birmingham and the late Mr. Whiteroft, Lt. William J. Whiteroft was his father's best man.

Seating the guests were William Knott, John O'Sullivan, Gaylord Gano, Donald Rogers and Cray Ackerman.

FOR HER daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. McCane wore a dress of imported organza embroidered in blue, topped with matching cashmere sweater. The groom's mother chose pale blue peau de soie with the bodice embroidered in white and trimmed with pearls.
