Foxcroft WNEG Holds Party To Benefit Educational Fund

The home of Mrs. Robert Thorn provided a beautiful setting June 6 for the Foxcroft WNEG club's dessert bridge party, a benefit for the club's education fund. Bridge tables were set both inside and outside by the swimming pool and were decorated with pots of frilly petunias which also served as table prizes.

Nearly a 100 members and guests were present. The party committee were Mrs. F. E. Fleming and Mrs. J. W. Thorne, president; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wengren, vice president and president elect; Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gledman, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erdman, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. William Wall, membership; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. van Kyk, corresponding secretary; and Mr. and Mrs. Wright Hill, hospitality.

Mrs. Lawrence Martz, Oak Grove drive, recently entertained the Detroit Women's National Farm and Garden club at her home for a picnic buffet luncheon. For the past several years, this annual picnic has been held at the lakehome of Mrs. Martz, Foxcroft, Michigan.

Richard Martz has returned home from his summer vacation month bringing with him his fiancée, Lee Graves of New York City, a student at Pembroke.

Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Wing Lake road, entertained her friends at a trip to Orange, Calif. where she visited her daughter, Mrs. R. R. Costello and family.

The occasion of the visit was the birth of her third grandchild, a son, Ryan Costello. The other two children are Mark and Kim.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnson entertained the Rosedale Neighbors' Club at their home at their annual husbands night party. It was a box-supper with a musical and a variety of other amusements.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Gates, Fieldstone Court, and children, Hattie and Jane, recently motored to St. Louis where they visited family and friends for a two-week vacation.

George Seibert, Indianapolis Trail has been elected president of the West Lakes Lions Club. He and Mrs. Seibert attended the Lions' annual dinner at the Sheraton Club Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Three other delegates and their wives shared their suite.

New neighbors on Morningside drive are Dr. and Mrs. John Tracy and their three children. The younger set will be happy to meet Ann Marie, 6, John Martin, 4 1/2, and Robert, 2 1/2.

Dr. Tracy is a psychiatrist at Northville State Hospital and a graduate of Georgetown University in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Tracy is an alumna of Marygrove college.

Very much involved at present is a law in progress. Mrs. Tracy will soon have more time for their favorite hobby, bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Schreiber of Sunningbrook have just returned from a trip to Hancock where they attended the wedding of their son, Herbert G. Schreiber, Jr., to Margaret Lang on June 2. The day following the wedding, they attended Heriack's graduation from Michigan Tech.

Also attending the wedding and graduation were Mrs. Schreiber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Horn of Cleveland, and Carl Schreiber of Elyria. Bridal attendant at the wedding was Ellen Schreiber, sister of the groom.

The couple are now on their way to Van Nuys, Cal. where Herb will join the Lockheed staff.

Judy Winchell to be Member of Teen-Aged Fashion Panel

Judy Winchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Winchell, Bloomington drive, has been selected to be on the teen-aged fashion panel of 30, chosen from over 750 Detroit area girls who competed for the honor.

The girls will learn something of modeling, merchandising and the coordinating of clothes and accessories. They will meet regularly with various buyers to learn something of the buying problems, and to contribute their ideas on teen-aged fashion.

Judy already had experience modeling for two Detroit stores. In the fall, Judy will be a soprano more at Birmingham high school.

Mildred and Bert Wood are returning tomorrow from a week's trip to Knoxville where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Drville DeVoe, former Franklinites.

Tomorrow night the Win Himans are entertaining the Detroit Hammond organ society at their home in Collington. The Williams, Forests, of Meadowlake, the Clifford Baughs, former Franklinites, will be among the guests.

Village Roads Get Verbal Workout

FRANKLIN—Council requested Clerk Faye Haak to ask the State to declare Wellington Road, Monday through Wednesday, closed to road work problems for two hours.

Under fire by a dozen residents for banning oil as a dust control measure, the village board has been convinced the people that oiling roads to control dust does more harm than good.

"During the past 12 months," means of dust control (other than oil) on any of the village's roads. "It is inconceivable that we can

Diploma-Shaped Invitations Sent to Friends of Graduate

Clever little diploma-shaped invitations, sealed with wax, announced the surprise graduation luncheon June 2 for Joy Fortune. Instigator for the party was Joy's younger sister, Ann.

Birmingham high school pen-pals and large posters decorated the house. All the place settings were white and maroon, mortar board place cards and the center piece was of red and white carnations.

For dessert Ann made more mortar board shaped cupcakes. The center piece was a frosted granite croaker and a frosted bassel trout. Six couples, friends of Joy's, were invited. Darlene Domes, Alice Hogan, Jeanette and Martin Mingo and Janet Welch.

Joy and Ann are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Fortune of Labor road.

Maria Kraus, daughter of the George Kraus of Onala Vista lane, was graduated from Holy Name school at the end of the year. Sunday, Maria's parents entertained 30 friends and relatives at a buffet dinner party later in the day.

Guests gathered on the patio and admired Maria's lovely white graduation dress. Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kraus, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kraus, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kraus, Mrs. May Pettangi and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Belanger were among the congratulatory guests.

Karin Rush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leonard Rush of Fairlane drive, was graduated from the Art Institute of Chicago Friday, June 8.

Ballerina Beverly Ann Hellemann was dressed in pale peach and sky blue to dance the Gavotte in her recital Monday evening. Beverly's daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hellemann, Bradford drive, Westchester, takes ballet instruction at the Community House.
