Talent Show Opening At Oakland Hills CC

"Tour-a-Mour" or "Flightful Fantasy" is the title of the third annual Oakland Hills Country Club Talent show. The theme is a world tour mentally pictured by a sweet, naive airthe ticket office attendant.

In the tour, stops are made at Paris, the South Sea Islands, Calcutta, India, and New Orleans. Each stop is featured by songs and dances in the native atmosphere.

THE COMMITTEE and cast are made up of club members, who have been working on rehearsals in the past four weeks under the direction of Edward F. Sullivan and Gordon C. Applequist, the directors.

The show, which is scheduled for a three-day run, today, Friday and Saturday, June 21-23, will be preceded by a buffet dinner and followed by dancing.

Joseph P. Baldez is producer and Read Jenkins, stage manager.

Rotary Anns

The meeting of the Rotary Anns, scheduled for June 18, was postponed due to the death of Jerome Neff, husband of the organization's president. It has been re-scheduled for Monday at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. J. H. Aron, 2206 1/2 Telegraph road, Birmingham.

Altrusa Plans Patio Supper

The annual meeting of the Altrusa club of Birmingham will be held Monday at 7 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Warren L. Small, 17889 Danblaine road, Beverly Hills. A patio supper is planned and Mrs. George Oehm, Mary Spaulding and Helen Holmes will assist the hostess.

Annual reports of officers and committee chairmen will be read after which officers will be installed and committees appointed. Incoming officers are: Mariel Brusie, president; Mrs. Millard Newcomb of Pleasant Ridge, vice president; Mary White of Pontiac, reelected recording secretary; Kathryn Velder of Pontiac, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Small, treasurer. Mrs. Carl Wonnberger is program coordinator. Board of directors include Mrs. Raymond Peck, Mrs. Paul Fankotan and Mary Spaulding.

This meeting concludes the season. The club will convene again in the fall.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

College Clubs Plan Lecture

Members of Wells, Skidmore and Wheaton college clubs met Friday afternoon in the Brookside avenue home of Mrs. George Talburt, president of the Wells club.

They discussed the proposed lecture and buffet supper they will sponsor for members and guests to sustain interest in higher education.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. Alec Parnie and Mrs. Robt. Neumann from Wells, Mrs. Gordon Harrison from Wheaton and Mrs. Robert Green from Skidmore.

On Saturday, Wells college club had a picnic at the home of Ethel Powar of Ann Arbor.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.
