

Pride, dominated by a proper sense of humility, is a characteristic worthy of possession. Beware, though, of pride that rides upon the back of self-content and arrogance. . . for of such are made the pitfalls and barriers in life. Unrestrained pride is a vice more subtle than many sins.

Music Guild Opening to Public

A chamber orchestra of 11, conducted by Detroit Symphony cellist Paul Olevsky will be in the spotlight for music lovers when the Cranbrook Music Guild presents a program at 4 o'clock, Sunday, June 24, at the Greek theatre.

The guild has a closed membership but this particular concert is available at the Record Corner open to the public with tickets and Grinnells in Birmingham.

Charles Klingensmith is in charge of the tickets and Mrs. John W. Sanders membership chairman.

Since 1951 when the guild was formed, Mrs. Walter A. Williams has been in charge of the advisory committee which plans the programs for the year. She is assisted by Mrs. Walter F. Skinner.

MRS. Arvel Mason is in charge of the ushers, assisted by Mrs. Robert Baxter, Mrs. Charles A. Lynch, Mrs. Charles D. Howell and Mrs. Ronald W. Ballantyne.

Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom, publicity chairman, is assisted by Mrs. Charles H. Ray and Mrs. Roy E. Hawkinson. Lettuy W. Dahlberg is president of Cranbrook Music Guild and Frederick G. Weed treasurer.

Following the concert Mr. and Mrs. Walker A. Williams will entertain for supper in their Glenary road home for members of the Cranbrook Music Guild board as well as the outgoing board members and friends.

ABOVE: Mrs. Walter Skinner (left) lends a helping hand in the advisory capacity, while Mrs. Charles Lynch will act as an usher at the Sunday program.

AT RIGHT: Mrs. Walker A. Williams has been in charge of the advisory committee since the guild was formed five years ago.
