Newlywed Bowmans Rites Solemnized On Florida Trip At Cranbrook

Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Bowman will reside on Henrietta street this summer after they return from a Florida honeymoon. In the fall, they plan to move to East Lansing where Norman will complete studies for a masters degree.

Their marriage was solemnized Saturday in Our Lady of Sorrows church, Farmington, with 250 guests witnessing the double ring rites.

THE BRIDE is the former Christine Ruth Leving, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orla William Leving of West Linn, Birmingham. Her husband's parents are the Robert Paul Bowmans of Inkster road, Southfield township.

Christine chose a tulle over satin wedding gown, appliqued with imported lace embroidery and seed pearls. The lace was used on the collar, the neckline, short-sleeved short sleeves and bouffant skirt which extended into a chapel train.

Imported French illusion fashioned her finger-tip length veil

Christ Church, Cranbrook, was the scene of the marriage Saturday morning of Joan Polhemus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Polhemus of Captains Lane, Franklin, and Dr. Stephen Copps, son of Mrs. Clinton Copps of Stevens Pte., Wis., and the late Mr. Copps.

The rites were performed by Rev. William Norvell assisted by Rev. Albert Hillestost of Chicago, Ill.

A WHITE embroidered French organdy gown was chosen by the bride. Styled with Sabrina neckline and short sleeves, it featured a tiered bouffant skirt.

Her finger-tip length illusion veil fell from a cap of organdy petals trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a prayer book adorned with white roses.

Nancy Winnings, Joan's roommate at the University of Colorado Nursing School, came from Detroit, Ill. to be a bridesmaid. Another bridesmaid was Patricia Booz of Birmingham. The bride's sister, Susan Polhemus, was her maid of honor.

A miniature nosegay was carried by Jan Polhemus, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Warren Polhemus of Anderson, Ind., for her duties
