Dance Recital Benefits Crippled Children's Fund

On Saturday evening in Cranbrook auditorium Madeleine and Ray Samuels, 15843 Buckingham, presented a number of their dance pupils in an annual recital — the Stardust Revue.

Tickets were sold and proceeds donated to a camping fund for the South Oakland County Crippled Children's Society.

Among those performing were Mariola Schutte, Mary Ann Murphy, Penny Cassell, Lynda Drake, Judy Burkhardt, Ingrid Kolt, Al and Jane Sawyer, Marilyn Devine, Judy and Jane Barlow and Margaret and Gregory Young from the East Beverly section.

To show their appreciation for the excellent guidance and teaching of their children in the first and second grades at Baldwin school, 28 mothers and youngsters honored Miss Alice Thelke at a picnic on Friday, at the home of Mrs. Robert Karp, 31423 Sheridan. Mrs. Leo Trecker from Birmingham and also present to enjoy the tribute to her daughter.

A gift was presented to the guest of honor after the ladies had enjoyed punch and the children had finished their cookies and dixie cups.

To celebrate her sixth birthday, Linda Pattyn of Kinross invited 29 kindergarten classmates and their teacher, Mrs. Davis for lunch. Assisting Linda's mother in preparing the repast and conducting the games were an aunt, a grandmother and Mrs. Gerald Ferrer.

Two-Area Tots 'Make the Grade,' Graduating from Nursery School

Not to be outdone by those receiving diplomas from local high schools and big universities, the nursery crowd got together Friday for their graduation from the West Maple Nursery. Dressed in white robe and mortarboard, each small fry received a diploma tied with a pink ribbon, no less.

There was so much hugging and talking in the line waiting for the presentation, mothers report, one might consider them to have graduated "cum laud."

Bonny Sue Pien, she's the John Pien's 5-year-old from North Carriage road, and Bart Naughton's young Bobbie of Gillet Lakes were two of the several mop-tops who "made the grade."

Closing the books on a semester of school work is Janet Brown, home from the University of Wisconsin. Joan will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lathrop Brown, Jr. of Cotton Hill lane.

Home too, from school is Donald Goldsmith, who was in the school of architecture at the University of Michigan. Don and Maudie Smith plan to make their home on Northside. Mrs. Goldsmith's daughter of the Joseph Harless of Oakleigh.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS

A liking for gardening and a desire for more room to hand do it, was one reason for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ollschlager's move from Huntington Woods to their present home on Jonathan lane.

Five-year-old Robert is to hand Vaughan in the fall, and Robert, 8, is enrolled there now. Mrs. Ollschlager's hobbies are painting (she majored in fine arts at college) and music for which she received a degree from the Detroit Conservatory of Music. Bob, who like his mother is fond of music, plays the piano.

A warm welcome to the I. R. Kapplers, who moved from Lathrop Village to make their home on Pon Valley. The Kapplers have two sons — Robert, married, who makes his home in Birmingham, and Richard, a student at the University of Michigan.

Friday, there will be "a first" in the life of young Tommy Richards when he takes a plane ride to visit his grandparents in Deal. N. J. Tommy will make the trip with his mother, Mrs. Norma Richards of Thorsner and will be gone a week.

Forsaking Michigan for some time — until December, in fact — Mrs. Louise Bunnell of North Carriage road, Mrs. Bunnell left this week for the Fairfax plantation in Mississippi.

Mrs. Charles Bay was hostess for the bridge club at her home on Quanton road last week.

Mrs. Jim Tuyn of Lahser road had the "Canasta" club last week at her home on Lahser road.

"Buddy" Badger won a recent golf award at the Black River golf club in Port Huron. Bud, the son of the Albert Badger, 1000 Montclair lane, represented Bloomfield Hills high school at the event.
