Bride-Elect Honored Guest At Miscellaneous Shower

Mrs. Jack Edington, Wing Lake road, entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Carole James at Oakland Hill country club June 13. Carole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen James, Wing Lake road, will become the bride of Bill Tyson, son of Ty Tyson of Detroit, Aug. 25.

Centering the luncheon table was a spring-floral arrangement in pink and white. Instead of ordinary placecards, Mrs. Edington had made little copper ash trays bearing the name of each guest in gold.

Guests were Mrs. Richard Gar-

'Fun' Theme Is Carried Out At Association Dinner Dance

A huge banner reading "Welcome Neighbors" hung over the arch at the Birmingham country club Friday evening welcoming members and guests of the Bloomfield-Berkshire association to their annual dinner dance.

Theme of the party was "have fun," and thanks to the enthusiastic chairman, Mrs. Richard Morgan, and her helpers, they carried it through.

Little metallic sand pails, filled with garden plants and long tapers were on each table, along with heart-shaped bottles of perfume for the ladies.

Jack Cattle's music, the late evening entertainment by professional dancers, the "special delivery" notes and the petition to "have fun" made the party an enjoyable affair.

Mrs. and Mrs. Harvey S. Peters of Wedgewood drive entertained about 55 neighbors at a cocktail party before the dinner dance. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daleghish, East Greenwich drive, also had some neighbors in for cocktails, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phelps had some folk at their home on Old Mill road before the party.

Graduation exercises were at 8 o'clock last Thursday evening for University of Detroit seniors, Joan Herro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herro of East Greenwich was one of the honored group. All of Joan's class friends and relatives were invited back to her home for a party afterwards. Punch, tea, sandwiches and a graduation cake were served. Joan majored in history and will continue teaching at the Cleveland intermediate school.

Congratulations to Dr. L. H. Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Del Boyd of Bradford drive, Westchester, who is graduating from St. Mary's high school in Redford.

Last Sunday between two and six o'clock, over 100 guests came to an open house in her home. Friends and relatives sat at little tables out on the lawn and patio while enjoying the very little delicacies and punch. Deloris has a secretarial position in Detroit awaiting her.

On June 9 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ziff of Berkshires, Westchester, had a dinner party for 20 guests in honor of Mrs. Ziff's mother, Mrs. Harry Solomon. The honor guest lives in Beverly Hills, Calif. and was on her way home after a visit

Mrs. Edington and daughter Jill left today for California arriving first in San Francisco and then on to Los Angeles where they will visit Mrs. Edington's mother, Mrs. Mary A. Simpson of Burbank. Enroute home, they will stop off in Las Vegas.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Wally and Rosy Stecker, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stecker, Wing Lake road, entertained their friends at a joint birthday party June 16. Upon arrival, guests were served ice cream and two birthday cakes. Wally, who will be eight the fourth of July had an Independence Day decor on his cake while Rosy, seven, on June fourth, had a clown cake.

Both boys enjoyed family gatherings and dinners on their respective days.

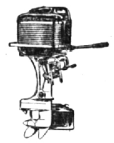

Guests at the party were Skipper Gadd, Lloyd and Charles Engel, Dorman Dickerson, Lamont and Glen Richter, Patty and Sandy Fraser, George Walker and Rickey and Marion Walker.

The afternoon was spent at the movies for a rousing cowboy show and innumerable cartoons.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sanderson and daughter Wendy of Thurber Road recently returned from a two-weeks' tour of Florida. They motored down the east coast to the Keys traveling through the Everglades and on the Tamiami Trail. Coming back via the west coast, they stayed on the Gulf and while there, did some skin diving. One Wendy caught nine conch shells. They found Florida excitingly colorful this time of year with everything in bloom in brilliant color.

SUMMER IN VERMONT

A summer of thrilling and exciting experiences is in store for Mary Jocelyn, Julie and Janet DeVilling, Barbara Starr and Wendy Sanderson who will leave June 27 for a two-month's stay at Camp Hanout at Thetford, Vt. in the Green Mountains.

Several pullmans have been chartered by the camp and will pick up campers all along the way to the eastern destination.

At the Wing Lake Property Owners association annual meeting last week officers for next year were elected.

Glen James will be president; Jack Townsend, vice president; William Fraser, treasurer; Randall Clark, secretary and John Leung, water and pump director. Richard Carltek is returning president. There was a proposal to do some work on the wells, possibly to include heater motors to increase pressure. Extensive research and investigation will be done before this proposal is adopted.

Announcement was made that the life guard at the beach has been re-hired and duties began.

Residents are asked to cooperate in keeping their dogs from the beach during swimming hours of the day and evening.

Ralph Darling, Sunningdale, is committee chairman for Wing Lake As'n on the drainage problem. This committee is meeting tonight at Wing Lake school together with the Oakland County highway and drain commissioners to determine possible control to eliminate excess water overflowing from Wing Lake.

They are hoping as a result of this meeting to find a solution to eliminating the excess water condition along Maple road in the spring.

Mrs. Verne Casson, Worthington road, entertained 12 guests Friday evening at a shower for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald A. Casson of Dearborn. Following the unwrapping of gifts, the evening was spent with various games. Midnight salad, coffee and dessert were served.
