 been made for an orderly transition.
 "The arrangements provide for my service to be available to the city of Birmingham after August 1st in a limited manner, and I wish to assure you that I will make every effort to assist my successor in every way possible.
 "My appreciation for the opportunities and associations that have resulted from this period of service is very deep and sincere, and I wish to assure you that my interest will not terminate with the termination of my employment."

This & That

 spiritual strides from barbarianism to a reasonably advanced march toward the vision of a Utopia.
THREE STEPS forward; two steps backward, yet the free steps add up to one step toward a Higher Life.
 It is like the promise of spring when the last cold blasts of late winter give way to the burning heat of the restored green to the grass... then follow the leaf and flower, the fruition and harvest of the farmer's field... the passing of summer and the autumnal coloring of foliage that soon returns to the earth, leaving bare branches to stand up against another winter's cold blasts.
 Yet within the bare branches sleeps life again in spring they will re-clothe themselves in foliage and once more the wondrous cycle of Nature's law appears.
 SO IT IS with all that's good. So it is with Truth which, though it may from time to time be de-throned, yet in accordance with immutable Law rises again, and again... and again.
 Millions of men and women have fought and died for the right of Good Life to prevail upon this earth; so long as mankind exists, that purpose will stimulate human beings to keep on ascending the long uphill road to Utopia.
 The dictator, the tyrant may now and forever more!

Candidates

 The American Legion Auxiliary Color Guard will be followed by the Junior League float and St. Dunstan's Layers "Surrey With the Fringe on Top."

MOMS float will be followed by the Dyke Wash float. Democratic and Republican precinct delegates, carrying flaming torches in their hands, will march at the end of the parade, leading the public to the rally in Shain Park.

Assault Charged

Birmingham police are holding Phillip Alfred Bell, 2001 E. Maple, in Oakland county jail on charges of assault with intent to do bodily harm. Police said he was arrested Saturday night after a neighbor called and reported Bell was having "a family fight" with his wife.
 Bell's bond was set at $10,000 after he waived examination at his arraignment Wednesday before Birmingham Justice John J. Gaffill. He was bound over to Oakland county circuit court.
