

It is true that one may hide evil-doing from the eyes of others... but never from himself. All of one's life is filled with a variety of temptations, and he is, indeed, wise and safe when able to overcome the tendency to do wrong. "It is never too late to mend".

Bunch at Bridge Brunch

OAKLAND HILLS country club women gathered for a plantation buffet brunch and bridge last week. Pictured with the floral centerpiece used for the occasion are Mrs. Vincent VanFleet; Mrs. Edward Murray; Mrs. J. R. Ewing, social chairman for the year; Mrs. Chester A. Cahn; and Mrs. R. J. Drummond, party chairman.

At Soroptimists' Installation

MARION SCHMIDT, newly installed president of Soroptimist International of Birmingham, accepts the gavel from Mary Dewey, outgoing president and new first vice-president. Helen Larkin (left) was installing officer and Nina Noble (right) had charge of the induction of new members at the dinner meeting Thursday evening at Devon Gables. See Story on Page 5, Sec. 2.

James Nelsons Take Wisconsin Honeymoon

Reception at Orchard Lake Follows Cranbrook Rites

JoAnne Elizabeth Wellman was gowned in ice pink Italian silk peau de soie for her marriage Saturday afternoon to James Nels Nelson, son of the Melvin Nels Nelsons of Topeka, Kansas. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Evans Wellman of Bloomfield Hills.

Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiated at the double-ring rites in Christ Church Cranbrook. A reception followed at Orchard Lake Country club.

JUDY and Jill Minor, daughters of the Jack W. Minors of Birmingham, as flower girls, wore white embroidered Swiss organza over ice pink taffeta and carried baskets of rose petals as they preceded the bride down the aisle.

Demure roses, poschus foliage and lilies-of-the valley adorned the heirloom ivory and lace fan carried by the bride. Hand corded Vencon lace was applied on the short sleeved bodice and floor length skirt of the bridal gown extending into a chapel train. Two tiers of silk illusion cascaded from a cap of the corded lace.

MATRON of honor was Mrs. Clyde E. Thompson of Henderson, Ky.; Ann Lundberg of Pompano Beach, Fla.; Carolyn Averill, cousin of the bride from Portland, Ore.; and Alice Ketts of Birmingham served as bridesmaids.

Their gowns were fashioned of velvet embossed white chiffon over ice pink taffeta and designed with square necklines, short sleeves and waltz length skirts. Accenting the empire bodices were cummerbunds of pink taffeta draped into a bustle. Small face veils were attached to their headbands of pink taffeta and their pink mulline fans were covered with tiny garnet roses.

PAUL E. Lindemann came from New York City to be best man. Ushering guests were the bride's brother, Mark L. Wellman, Richard V. Lewis of El Dorado, Kan., and John A. Collins of Chicago, Ill.

Mist blue silk organza and white crepe embroidery fashioned Mrs. Wellman's gown. Her accessories were blue and she pinned pink cymbidium orchids to her purse. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of dove gray imported lace over pink taffeta. Her flowers were pink roses.

When the newlyweds left for a Wisconsin honeymoon, the bride was wearing a Dior blue Italian silk dress with matching jacket and navy and white accessories. The couple will make their home in Kansas City, Mo.

MRS. JAMES NELS NELSON

Suburban Scene

by BARBARA GANSCHOW

Singing Way Across Europe

Singing their way across Europe are the Smith college chamber singers who explained last week for London and an eight-week tour of the continent.

Among the 48 girls chosen by audition from members of the Smith choir is Patty Hummel, daughter of the Charles Hummels of Devon lane, Birmingham, the only gal from Michigan so honored.

Stints on the Dave Garroway and Will Rogers, Jr. early morning TV shows and St. Bartholomew and St. James church were on their New York city schedule, and before boarding the Royal Dutch Airlines flight, the Smith club of New York hosted a bon voyage party.

APPEARANCES in Canterbury and St. Paul's cathedrals in London were topped off by teas given by the American ambassador and the London Smith club.

Ambassadors all over Europe will honor the girls after each concert as they continue to wend their way through seven European countries.

Chartres cathedral and the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris are also on the agenda with another high spot being a performance at the Salzburg festival in Germany. All in all, something long to be treasured in Patty's memory book.

Janet Souter Weds

Janet Duncan Souter was married June 2 in Palm Springs, Calif. to James Otis Wood.

A graduate of Michigan State university where she was a Kappa Alpha Theta, Janet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Souter of Oxford. The Souters are former Birmingham residents, having lived on Riverside drive.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lenore Wood of Catherage, Ill., and the late Mr. Wood. (See SUBURBAN SCENE, Page 6, Sec. 2)

New Newcomers Officers

BIRMINGHAM COMMUNITY HOUSE lawn is the setting for this picture of officers of the Newcomers club elected at the group's Thursday meeting. From left, Mrs. John Green of Suffield avenue, vice president; Mrs. Walter Riley of Westchester Way, president; and Mrs. Max Morrien of Pleasant street, treasurer. Mrs. Leo Ritten of Locherbie road is secretary.

PICTURES OF 19-MONTH-OLD Heidi Bauer Hagne teeing off bring smiles from tournament co-chairman George Jaquillard and two of the contestants, Pat Devany (left), of Grosse Ile, and Jo Ann Prentice, of Birmingham, Ala. They stopped to admire the photographs during Forest Lake country club's dinner party in honor of the contestants.

LPGA and Horse Show Entrants Entertained

Forest Lake - Bloomfield Open Hunt Host Parties

Few moments of relaxation were afforded entrants in the LPGA championship tournament at Forest Lake country club and the Detroit Horse show at Bloomfield's Open Hunt club as they kept to their tight schedules of events. But some social activity did creep in.

Sunday evening, after the awarding of prizes to LPGA winners gathered on the 18th green, Betty Dodd broke out her guitar and proceeded to entertain those present, including pros, amateurs, club members and gallery, with "rock-n-roll" numbers.

Someone made known the fact that there was to be a special Cancer Fund drive Tuesday on Babe Zahariis' birthday, and while Betty continued to play and sing, $1800 was donated for the cause.

THE NIGHT before the championship players teed off for the opening round, the club hosted a cocktail party and dinner for contestants, press members and guests. Ward Stoddard was chairman for the party with 250 people enjoying the buffet and admiring the trophies and prizes displayed.

AAUW Book Sale Plans Underway

Summer will hold no rest for the committee members of the Birmingham AAUW book sale.

Tentative plans have been completed for the sale to be held October 21-27 at the local Detroit Edison office.

Mrs. John S. Judd and Mrs. T. La Fontaine are joint chairmen for the sale. They have chosen the following members for their committees: business managers, Mrs. E. J. Conway, Mrs. Stanley Fulton; Mrs. James P. Abbott; Mrs. Paul Kuebler. Others are: marking, Mrs. Bar-rienne C. Ketchum, Mrs. Russell Richardson, Mrs. Shetler Davis, Mrs. Conrad F. Speck, Mrs. N. J. Bakas; solicitation, Mrs. Joseph E. Wagner, Mrs. H. T. Bretelle, Mrs. Carl J. Theobald; publicity, Miss Shirley Hervey, Mrs. C. P. Monaghan, Mrs. William Kegei, Mrs. Gerald C. Joynt, Mrs. Raymond F. Giffels, Mrs. Wesley Mueller.

Posters, Mrs. James S. Siddall; radio and TV, Mrs. Edward I. Nicholas; transportation, Mrs. William K. Ginnam, Mrs. W. Rosemont; handling and salvage, Mrs. Robert Walls, Mrs. John Rosier.

guests took their turn on the club's decorated the club Sunday when for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Moses of Bloomfield Hills. Bouquets of yellow flowers and tained all entrants at brunch with Theo MacManas acting as junior hostess.

Adult exhibitors, members and photographs of horse show events around the pool.

(See other picture on page 2)

JUNIOR EXHIBITORS who rode on equestrian teams in the Detroit Horse Show last week at Bloomfield Open Hunt club are (from left) Heather Campbell, Chris Minkler, Sue Wallace, Cindy Camp-bell and Sara Cameron.