

Allison-Cooley Rites In Presbyterian Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Claude Cooley of Meadowlake road, Bloomfield township, hosted a reception in their home Saturday following the wedding of their daughter, Janne Leone, to David Gerald Allison of Ypsilanti, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Claude Allison.

The chapel of First Presbyterian church, Birmingham, was the scene of the double-ring ceremony uniting the couple in a marriage.

JANNE chose a gown of silk tulle with a princess line with a lace bodice. A seed pearl trimmed tulle secured her fingertip length veil and she carried a cascade of white orchids, roses and stephanotis.

Judith Cooley was her sister's only attendant. Seed pearls decorated her velvet headband and were used on the neckline of her ballerina length gown of ice blue silk. Her flowers were pink roses.

DAVID asked his brother, Melvin, of Belleville, to be best man and Duane Briggs of Bloomfield township ushered guests.

Mrs. Cooley pinned a corsage of pink carnations to her blue silk organza dress.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison will reside in Ypsilanti after a northern Michigan honeymoon. For traveling, the bride wore white accessories and a white orchid corsage with her navy blue silk shantung steath dress and matching jacket.

Surprise Party

He doesn't know it yet, because he'll be too busy to sit down and read today's Eccentric before it happens. But John J. Gorman is going to be surprised with a housewarming party tonight, when 18 of his friends will celebrate his move from Covington road in Detroit to Adams road, Birmingham.

"J. J." last week took up bachelor's quarters with Dick Coleman in the charming duplex apartment where Dick lives. Tonight, J. J. is expecting Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Duffy, of Fairgrove, Franklin, to stop in to see his new home.

What he doesn't know is that the Duffys and the Richard C. Oglesbys, of Westwood, Birmingham, have arranged for a whole crowd to barge in, laden with cocktails, dinner and housewarming gifts for the new Birminghamite.

Among the unexpected guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Diehl, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William H. Breech, Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Bawden, Jr., and the John L. Sclaros.

The Frank Couzens, of Grosse Pointe, Dr. and Mrs. John Wakevainen, and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Rose will also pay a surprise visit to welcome the new resident.

Have fun, everybody!
